ECZEMA
FROM BIRTH

Our little daughter had Eczema from birth. The parts afflicted would become terribly inflamed, and water would ooze out like great beads of perspiration, finally this would dry up and the skin would crack and peel off. She suffered terribly. Had to put soft mittens on her hands to keep her from scratching. Two of our leading physicians did not help her. After bathing her with CUTICURA SOAP, I applied CUTICURA (ointment) freely, and gave her CUTICURA RESOLVENT regularly. She improved at once and is now never troubled. The statements I have made are absolutely true and not exaggerated in any way.

TAMMANY'S CHOICE.

Augustus Van Wyck Nominated for Governor.

He is a Brother of Gotham's Present Mayor.

Slate Gets Through Without Any Trouble.

Platform of Empire State Democracy is Silent on Silver--A Bolt That Was Itself Bolted.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 29.—The bright skies and clear atmosphere of the early morning found no parallel in the political situation preceding the reassembling of the democratic state convention. Before many delegates had arisen this morning the leaders were about the corridors and at 8:30 o'clock it was announced from Mr. Croker's headquarters that the New York and Kings county delegations had united on Augustus VanWyck, of Brooklyn, a brother of Mayor VanWyck, of New York, for governor and that the mayor would be withdrawn.

For men who were up until long after 2 o'clock this morning the leaders were particularly active. At 7 o'clock Ex-Senator Hill left his room and went to a brief conference. Shortly afterward Elliott Danforth, who is a candidate, came along and had a chat with John B. Stanchfield, also a candidate. In the meantime Senator McCarren, of Brooklyn, and Richard Croker were having a conference and a great deal of telegraphing was done.

JUDGE VANWYCK BROUGHT OUT.

Then at 8:30 o'clock there came an announcement that the Kings and New York delegations had combined on Judge Augustus VanWyck. Senator McCarren said:

"We are going to nominate Judge VanWyck and we will have 290 votes on the first ballot. Only 226 are necessary for a choice. Besides the New York and Kings county solid vote we will get votes from Onedia, Rensselaer, Erie, Columbia and Ulster and some scattering ones. We have not settled upon the rest of the ticket."

A few minutes after Senator McCarren made this statement, Senator Hill walked along the corridor.

SENATOR HILL'S OPINION.

He was smiling and in reply to questions said:

"Yes, I understand that the New York and Kings county delegates have united on Judge VanWyck for a candidate. At the same time none of the up-state candidates have withdrawn and I believe that all of them will get into the convention. I don't know of any up-state delegates pledged to Mr. VanWyck, but in return for favors shown other candidates by Tammany they may throw some votes."

BUSINESS BEGINS.

When the convention met soon after noon Frederick Schraub was elected permanent chairman and was escorted to the chair. He made an address in which he scored the republican administration; charged the national government with criminal neglect of troops in the Spanish war, and said:

"Everywhere democrats were in the van. Dewey, Schley, Hobson, Lee, Wheeler, democratic heroes all, have written high their names in the American temple of fame."

In conclusion he said:

"Momentous questions affecting the future policy of America must be passed upon by the next national congress. It should be the earnest effort of every democrat to so shape this convention that it shall render possible to return to the upper house our beloved Senior Senator Edward Murphy."

THE PLATFORM.

The report of the committee on resolutions was then read as follows:

"The democratic party of the state of New York in convention assembled declares as follows:

"It congratulates the country upon the successful termination of a war undertaken not for conquest or aggrandizment, but in the interests of humanity, liberty and civilization. We glory in the patriotic devotion and valor of our brave soldiers and sailors who have honored the American people and heightened the lustre of our national fame. The scandalous abuse by the president of his power of appointment in scattering army commissions among inexperienced and incompetent civilians as rewards to personal favorites and almost to the exclusion of experienced officers in the service is largely accountable for the fearful suffering and the appalling loss of life among the gallant soldiers that have brought disgrace upon the administration and a sense of shame to the nation. A democratic congress will, if chosen by the people, rigidly investigate the conduct of the war and expose and punish all who may be responsible for the unnecessary deaths, privations and sufferings of the soldiers."

The resolutions next say:

"We demand justice and equal taxation, no tax dodging. We denounce all attempts to evade the burdens of taxation upon personal property by pretended changes of residence or otherwise. Under the constitution and laws of our state eligibility to public office and liability to personal taxation both depend upon long residence. If the affidavits and official statements of the republican candidate for governor are true he is ineligible to the office of governor; if false, he has committed perjury and is morally disqualified. He cannot escape from his dilemma—there is either legal disqualification or moral unfitness."

When the reading of the platform was completed, Delegate Pierce, of Monroe, attempted to speak on the silver question, but was ruled out. The chairman announced that nominations for the office of governor were in order. When Chautauqua was called, M. Z. Haven, of Syracuse, named Mayor James K. McGuire of Syracuse.

Andrew McLain, of Kings, presented the name of Augustus Van Wyck.

William F. Mackie, of Erie, nominated Judge Robert C. Titus.

Judge S. S. Taylor, of Chemung, presented the name of John B. Stanchfield for governor.

VAN WYCK NOMINATED.

The vote for governor, as announced, was: Van Wyck, 350; Titus, 41; McGuire, 21; Stanchfield, 38.

TICKET COMPLETED.

The ticket nominated this afternoon is as follows:

For Governor—Augustus Van Wyck, of Kings.

For Lieutenant Governor—Elliott Danforth, of Chenango.

For Secretary of State—George W. Battin, of Niagara.

For Comptroller—Edwin S. Atwater, of Duchess.

For State Treasurer—E. B. Norris, of Wayne.

For State Engineer and Surveyor—Martin Schenck, of Rensselaer.

For Attorney General—Thomas F. Conway, of Clinton.

CHEERS FOR BRYAN.

A mention of the name of William Jennings Bryan by Thomas Carmody, in seconding the nomination of Stanchfield, produced the greatest demonstration witnessed in the convention.

Delegates stood on chairs waving hats, while from the galleries men waved hats and overcoats, and one man grabbed a Cuban flag from the decorations and waved it amidst the wildest excitement. The demonstration continued for several minutes.

A DIFFERENTIATED SPLIT.

The delegates of the Chicago platform democracy, at a meeting held at the city hall late last night to organize a bolt of the regular democratic ticket should the platform of 1896 be ignored, was split nearly even by a bolt among its own members.

Dissatisfied by a ruling of Chairman Henry M. McDonald, of New York, half or nearly half of the delegates followed the lead of Calvin E. Keach, of Lansburgh, and quitted the hall, after a meeting at which disorder prevailed to an extent that the presiding officer was powerless to control and motions and counter-motions were lost in a maze of parliamentary entanglements.

There were 142 delegates at the calling of the conference, out of the 150 entitled to seats, upon the basis of three to each senatorial district.

Resolutions were introduced providing that in the event of the democratic state convention ignoring the declaration of the Chicago platform, the committee on organization, consisting of one member from each senatorial district, meet within forty-eight hours and select candidates for all places on the state ticket and procure signatures to place such candidates in nomination. Discussion of the resolutions led to much bad feeling and finally on the chair declaring a motion to table the resolutions lost, Mr. Keach and his followers took umbrage and bolted the conference and those who remained adopted the resolution.

VOTING TODAY.

People of Canada to Decide a Great Question.

In Every District of the Dominion Ballots Are Being Cast for or Against Prohibition of the Liquor Traffic.

QUEBEC, Sept. 29.—One of the most interesting elections ever held in Canada will take place today. In every election district of the dominion the electors will vote upon prohibition. Never before has the question of prohibition been submitted to the people of so large a territory.

In all the providences of Canada the people will be given the opportunity to express themselves as for or against the absolute prohibition of the sale, manufacture, importation and use of any and all kinds of intoxicants in all parts of Canada.

The liberal government now in power has given to the people this opportunity for expressing themselves upon the great question, but no pledges are made by the government as to what course will be followed in case the people vote for prohibition.

It is not expected that more than one-half the registered vote of the dominion will be cast upon this question and the opponents of prohibition say that even if prohibition is carried the liberal government, on account of the small vote, will refuse to enact any prohibition laws upon the ground that the vote does not give a fair and adequate expression of the will of the people.

GREAT EXCITEMENT.

Very Serious Situation Prevails at Pana.

Citizens Patrol Streets Armed to the Teeth.

Feeling is Bitter Against Negro Miners.

Colored Men Are Penned Up in Their Stockades to Avoid Further Conflict --Negroes Were Wounded.

PANA, Ill., Sept. 29.—Intense excitement prevailed here today as a result of last night's street riot between the imported negro miners and the union miners.

The principal streets were filled with miners and citizens armed to the teeth. The negro arrested last night, who attempted to take Policeman Smith's life by an attack with a knife and whose arrest started the riot, failed to appear in court today for trial.

Mine Operator George V. Penwell, who gave bail for the negro, also failed to appear. Warrants were issued today for all the negroes concerned in the riot.

How many negroes were wounded and how severely cannot be learned. No one is permitted to enter the negro stockades and the operators refuse to give out any information. H. E. Bishop, a bystander, is the only white citizen wounded.

The negroes have not shown up on the streets today and it is thought the operators will keep them within the stockades until the excitement subsides.

TO SAVE THE COLON.

Lieutenant Hobson Feels Sure of Success.

The Vizcaya May Also be Raised--Government Ready to Give Him All Necessary Assistance.

PLAYA DEL ESTE, Cuba, Sept. 26.—Naval Constructor Hobson was here on the tug Chapman yesterday. He is living on it, quarantined, but not ill. Asked if he abandoned work on the Cristobal Colon, he said:

"No, indeed, I nave every hope of getting it off. If the government will furnish men and machinery I will not come north unless I bring it with me."

Mr. Hobson declares the saving of the Colon means more engineering than wrecking. It lies on its starboard beam ends, the stern on a steep, rocky beach.

It is afloat from midships forward. He will camp an engineer force ashore and build a suspension bridge to the ship, with travelers on overhead cables in order to transfer heavy weights to shore.

Pumps and boilers will be used to ship air bags under the deck of the port side forward and raise the bow even with the stern. Then Hobson will swing the ship broadside to the beach and there right it to patch the holes and pump it out.

Mr. Hobson said nothing but a gale could spoil his plans. Engineers are wanted immediately. Forty air bags came yesterday for use on the other ships.

Hobson left later for the wrecks of the Almirante Oquendo and Vizcaya to remove the former's guns to the Leonidas and to make a final inspection of the Vizcaya. He hopes to save that vessel also.

HOBSON CAN GO AHEAD.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Acting Secretary Allen, who has been directly in charge of the arrangements made with the wrecking companies for raising such of the Spanish warships sunk or stranded in the battle of July 3d as can be recovered, said today, referring to Constructor Hobson's work on the Teresa, that the navy department had given the young constructor all of the assistance which it was possible to extend in the prosecution of his work. Moreover, it is now proposed to give him further aid in his effort to raise the Colon, by far the finest ship of the Spanish squadron.

Whatever credit has been earned by Constructor Hobson by reason of the Teresa would, in the opinion of Mr. Allen, be largely exceeded if the attempt to raise the Colon results successfully. In the case of this ship, the young constructor has pledged his professional reputation against the unanimous opinion of all of the expert wreckers, who have examined the ship. Yet, the navy department is unhesitatingly supporting Hobson's judgment as is indicated by the fact that yesterday it shipped from New York $20,000 worth of specially manufactured rubber air bags to be used in lifting the Colon.

Aside from the sentimental reason for sparing no effort to save the ship, the navy department is satisfied, from the reports of the divers who have investigated her condition, that she is well worth, from a purely monetary point of view, an expenditure of a considerable percentage of her original value, about $4,000,000, if there is a reasonable prospect of raising her.

Mrs. Frank Greer's art reception yesterday afternoon was a feast for the eyes and a feast for the soul and the large number of admirers of the keramic art were well repaid for responding to the invitation to attend. The display yesterday consisted of china decoration, mostly raised gold and enamel, embracing some specimens which were far ahead of anything of the kind ever shown in the city. Mrs. Greer has spent several weeks in New York to obtain new ideas in this class of painting and her recent work shows some original and beautiful creations. The work of Mr. Greer, too, is strictly new and shows the touch of an artist. The little Misses Ruth and Helen Caldwell ushered the guests into the parlor. Mrs. P. J. McDonald assisted Mrs. Greer in receiving the callers. Mrs. Henry Wolfe, with the aid of Mrs. Barnes and Miss Meegan, served punch and cakes. Mrs. Greer gave her second reception this afternoon.

SOMETHING NEW.

Local Postoffice Orders to be Issued Hereafter.

Postmaster Page Receives Instructions This Morning--A Banking System Inaugurated.

This morning Postmaster Page received from the first assistant postmaster general a circular which will interest the business men and the public in general.

The circular orders the issue of money orders on the local postoffice, something that has heretofore been impossible to obtain. By this new rule a person may go to the Fort Wayne postoffice and procure a postoffice order payable at the same office. Whether the public will profit much by the privilege is a matter that cannot be told until it is tried but there are times, perhaps, ween the local postoffice order will be a convenience, as for instance on Saturdays when the banks close at 1 o'clock.

The postoffice order is thus equivalent to a check on a bank and in sending through the mail, or otherwise, will answer the same purpose.

A BANKING SYSTEM.

The department has also notified postmasters that postoffice money order offices in towns where there are no banks shall receive deposits and issue money order certificates for the same, the certificates to be payable upon presentation at any time. New Haven and other surrounding towns will come in on this new order.

THE CARNIVAL QUEEN

Miss Velma Ohneck Will Sway the Scepter.

Elected the Honor by an Overwhelming Majority--Received 5,648 Votes--Close of an Exciting Contest.

Velma Ohneck is queen.

The verdict was reached and the election was made about 11 o'clock, or a little later, at the Y. M. C. A. building last night, when with a vote of 5,648 she captured the honor. Miss Alice Crane, with 2,903, was second, and Miss Mae Williams, with 2,025½ was third.

At the close of box voting at 6 o'clock last evening the various candidates occupied the following positions:

Mae Williams	1,293
Velma Ohneck	1,229
Alice Crane	777
Elizabeth Knight	94
Minnie Frank	59
Elnora Gillion	27
Prudence Erickson	24
Emma Rurode	20
Mrs. G. W. McCausland	18
Hazel Pearse	14
Mrs. G. L. Greenawalt	11
Helen Smyser	10
Emily Hood	5
Scattering	87
Total	3,667

As was announced the open voting commenced in the large assembly room in the Y. M. C. A. building at 8 o'clock, and there was a large crowd in there when the doors were thrown open, which was constantly augmented as the evening wore away. When the time for secret voting came there was scarcely standing room down stairs and the gallery was crowded. Shortly after the hour named President Randall, of the street fair association, arose and after making a few general remarks introduced Hon. S. M. Foster as president of the evening. Mr. Foster made an exceedingly clever address of about five minutes, during which he succeeded in jolleying everybody in the room.

Mr. Foster, it must be remembered, is one of the officers of the Fort Wayne driving club and he made his speech on the race track order and grew quite humorous at times. The trend of his remarks, however, was that people who were present should not hesitate to become separated from their money. He announced the order of the voting and stated that John Morris, jr., would be the official timekeeper and that Mr. Keegan's committee, the ball committee, was then ready to receive votes which would be posted on the bulletin board every ten minutes. Voting then commenced and at 9:45, the hour set for the close of open voting, the count stood:

Alice Crane	1,599
Velma Ohneck	1,509
Mae Williams	1,413

During the next fifteen minutes there was a busy scene about the judge's desk and envelopes came in plentiful profusion. The excitement was intense and when promptly at 10 o'clock the timekeeper announced the vote closed a big sigh went up from nearly every breast in the room.

John T. Dougall, of the News, was the scorer and he was the cynosure of all eyes, as the newspaper amateur usually says. His handwriting was not so remarkable for its symmetry and beauty as for the effect it produced on the audience as each vote was recorded. There were some big envelopes and the very first one, a very harmless looking affair, contained 1,115 votes for Miss Crane.

That was the largest vote of the evening although Miss Ohneck received 960 and 850 and several votes of 300 and 500 each. Miss Williams' high vote was 597¼. The result was finally reached giving Miss Ohneck a clear majority of over 700 above her two principal oponents. She was called to the platform from where she bowed her acknowledgement to the crowd and afterwards shook hands with her friends in the auditorium. She was probably the happiest girl in Fort Wayne last night and her friends were nearly as happy as she was.

DEATH COMES.

The Queen of Denmark Passes From Life.

The End Came Peacefully While She Was Surrounded by Her Family--Royalty Plunged in Grief.

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 29.—The end of the queen of Denmark, which came at half past 5 this morning, was peaceful. At her bedside were the king of Denmark, the dowager empress of Russia, the king and queen of Greece, the princess of Wales, the duke and duchess of Cumberland, the crown prince and crown princess of Denmark and all the other members of the royal family.

HOW THE QUEEN DIED.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—A dispatch to the Times from Copenhagen has the following description of the death of the queen of Denmark:

The kings of Denmark and Greece and the princess of Wales, alternately, during many hours, held the hands of the dying queen, who for a few moments recovered consciousness but who would not speak. Her husband wept and the physicians requested him to retire to rest, but he replied: "I will stay at least while the queen is conscious."

Everywhere the flags are at half mast.

The queen did not die of any special illness, but of increasing decrepitude.

NOT A CORKSCREW.

It Was Another Kind of Punch McCoy Used on Corbett.

Two Pugilists Come Together in New York Hotel and McCoy Lays Corbett Out With a Kick.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—James J. Corbett and "Kid" McCoy have fought. The bout came off in the heart of New York in broad daylight and there was no police interference. Although it lasted but one round it proved to the spectators who happened to be at the Gilsey house yesterday afternoon that pugilists fight as well as talk if they so far forget themselves.

There were few spectators about the improvihed ring in the rotunda of the hostelry at 29th street and Broadway, but they were mightily interested even if there weren't any kinetoscope picture machines or seconds for a pictuesque background. The hotel men were annoyed because of the free-for all and democratic manner in which the two mouthy champions came to blows, and the spectators were disgusted when the friends of the principals pulled them apart after two or three blows and a kick.

Eye witnesses declared McCoy kicked Corbett and this the "Kid" denies. Anyway, a report was going the rounds last evening that Corbett had been taken to Considine's hotel after the trouble and a physician had ordered him to bed. The two pugilists met to discuss the Buffalo club's prospects for holding the proposed fight and lost their temper. This is the way one of the hotel attaches tells of the brief passage at arms:

"Corbett was standing at the cigar stand shortly after 1 o'clock and was surrounded by several friends when McCoy, also accompanied by several friends, came in through the Twenty-ninth street entrance. As soon as he saw Corbett he walked over to where he was, pushing his way through the knot of men around him.

"Both began to talk excitedly immediately. Without warning McCoy finally knocked Corbett's hat flying. Corbett, without a second's hesitation, then swung his left and landed on McCoy's right cheek. McCoy jumped back and Corbett started after him. When McCoy saw Corbett's move he kicked at him hard and caught him in the groin."

As the result of the fight Corbett will be confined to his bed for a week at least. McCoy made a hasty exit from the scene of battle.

ERNE DRAWS WITH LAVIGNE.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Kid Lavinge and Frank Erne fought a draw at the Greater New York Athletic club. Such was the referee's decision, but he announced that the men had an agreement to the effect that if both were on their feet at the end of the twentieth round the bout should be a draw. Erne had Lavinge's face in a bad fix, but had received little punishment himself. The crowd was dissatisfied with the result, as they wanted a decision. It was one of the best fights seen in New York this year, with Erne getting the best of it all through.

WILL BE DIFFICULT.

Task of the Peace Commission is Very Heavy.

Americans and Spaniards Are Widely Divergent.

Text of the Instructions of the Americans.

Whole of the Luzon to be Ceded to the United States--Church and State to be Separated.

PARIS, Sept. 29.—The United States peace commission held another session this morning, after which, accompanied by the United States ambassador, General Horace Porter, they drove to the foreign office, where the commissioners met and breakfasted with the Spanish commissioners. In addition to the commissioners and the ambassadors the minister of foreign affairs, M. Delcasse, had invited the three head officials of the French foreign office, the first secretaries of the embassies and General Hegron, secretary of the Elysee palace.

The French newspapers continue to comment upon the difficulties which the two commissions will have to face by reason of their divergent instructions, beyond which, it is said, they cannot go. Gil Blas says:

"The Spanish government has given its commissioners very precise instructions. They are to do their utmost to have it admitted that there can be no question of disputing the rights of Spanish sovereignty over Manila, the Island of Luzon and the rest of the archipelago outside of the naval stations which Spain will cede at the Maraine islands.

"On the other side, the American commissioners before leaving President McKinley, received from him very precise instructions, from which the commissioners cannot depart.

TEXT OF INSTRUCTIONS.

"The following is the text of their instructions:

"'1. Spain cedes absolute sovereignty over the whole of the Island of Luzon.

"'2. The other islands of the archipelago will be replaced under the dominion of Spain on condition that a liberal government is accorded to the inhabitants.

"'3. Complete separation of church and state in the Philippines.

"'4. Spain cannot cede any other islands in the group to any foreign power without America's consent.

"'5. The United States shall enjoy for all time the same commercial privileges as the most favored nations, not excepting Spain herself.'"

The Gil Blas concludes with remarking:

"It is therefore to be feared that for unhappy Spain the negotiations which open the first of October will give no satisfaction."

THEY WILL CELEBRATE.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—A dispatch to the Herald from Manila says:

At Malolos tomorrow, Aguinaldo will formally inaugurate the republic of the Philippines by a great celebration. Invitations have been extended to the principal army officers and newspaper correspondents here. A thousand natives will attend. The "dictator" will review his army and will probably issue proclamations to the nations of the world setting forth the intentions of his government. The transport Arizona, having on board navy recruits and an immense lot of mail, arrived today. This is the first home mail for several months.

There has been much adverse comment over the lack of mail facilities and the army of occupation is rejoicing that letters have arrived at last.

FROM BAYARD'S PEN.

The Statesman Wrote a Letter to William P. Cooper.

Mr. Bayard Was Then United States Senator From Delaware--A Reminiscence of Politics in 1871.

The death of the Hon. Thomas F. Bayard has recalled to William P. Cooper a reminiscence of the political days of 1871, when the distinguished statesman delivered a speech in this city.

On October 1st of that year Mr. Bayard, then United States senator from Delaware, and Andrew J. Curtin, then governor of Pennsylvania, were heard in Fort Wayne on the political issues of the campaign. Mr. Cooper, at that time occupying the position of city editor of THE SENTINEL, attended the meeting and took a report of the proceedings. Mr. Bayard requested of Mr. Cooper a copy of the paper containing the report of his speech, which the newspaper man mailed to his address a few days later. Mr. Bayard, in a grateful and complimentary letter, acknowledged the receipt of the paper and it is this letter that Mr. Cooper has preserved so well. It is a souvenir that will be prized more highly than ever since the death of the distinguished man who wrote it.

Carnegie's Big Project.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 29.—Commenting on the reported projects of Mr. Carnegie to build an ordnance plant, a ship yard on the Monongahela, and a railroad from Braddock to Tidewater, the Iron Trade Review this week says: "The ordnance proposition is the single one that is assured of foundation and of that there is just enough to indicate that an ordnance plant is a possibility at some time."

HACKNEY WITHDRAWS.

Democratic Candidate for Supreme Judge is Out of it.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 29.—Leonard J. Hackney has withdrawn from the democratic state ticket as a candidate for judge of the supreme court from the second district. His letter of resignation will be acted on by the state board of election commissioners at its next meeting.

The vacancy on the ticket caused by the resignation will be filled by the democratic state committee. It has been pretty well understood that Judge Hackney has never been able to bring himself to an indorsement of the "sixteen to one" platform of his party.

DRIVEN BY FLAMES.

Forest Fire Raging West Side of Colorado Divide.

People Are Fleeing for Their Lives--Cattle Are Perishing and Wild Animals Are Stampeded.

IDAHO SPRINGS, Col., Sept. 29.—Forest fires burning on the west side of the divide are beyond control and people are said to be fleeing for their lives. How many, if any, have perished, cannot be known, as there is no way of getting direct information at this time.

A light breeze gives the mighty sea of fire a new impetus and onward it goes, burning everything before it, with no chance of saving live stock or property. Cattle are known to be perishing, and bear and deer and other wild animals are running to the east side of the divide.

The damage will be tremendous. The timber losses amount to more than money consideration.

These forests cover the head waters of mountain streams, where the snows are retained for many months. From such sources the streams have been kept carrying a volume of water sufficient to irrigate most of the lands of the state west of the divide. With the disappearance of the timber the flow of the streams will be lessened.

There seems to be a settled opinion among the ranchers that the forest fires were started by Ute Indians with malicious intent. They say the forcible ejection of the Indians and their return to the reservation more than a year ago, because of their slaughter of game, made them bitter against the whites. They are now playing even, the settlers think, and at the same time driving some of the game into Utah, where they can hunt without being molested by game wardens.

A FORT WAYNE MAN.

James Dignan Arrested on Suspicion of Being One of the Flora Bank Robbers.

One of the men arrested as a suspect in the Flora bank robbery was James Dignan, a brother of Mrs. George Jaap, of this city. Quite a sum of money was found on his person and he told a peculiar story. It is alleged that he was strung up and an effort was made to have him confess, but this story is denied. Bloodhounds put on the track of the criminals, however, refused to follow Dignan's tracks and the officer now assert that he is not one of the robbers. Dignan has been absent from Fort Wayne and his sister did not know were he was.

It will be remembered that several years ago Dignan went through a long trial in the circuit court to establish his identity, his sister having believed he was dead.

Elected Lord Mayor of London.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—Sir John V. Moore, an alderman of the city of London and senior partner of Moore Brothers, tea merchants, has been elected lord mayor of London, to succeed Horatio David Davies, the present incumbent of that office. He was born in 1826, has represented the ward of Candlewick since 1889 and was sheriff of the city of London in 1893-94.

Diphtheria prevails at Markle, Ind., and one of the children of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Troutman died yesterday from that disease. Mr. Troutman is the editor and proprietor of the Markle News. He is a nephew of Mrs. N. Conover, of Harrison street, and frequently visits this city.

The work of the different committees is now nearly over so far as preliminaries are concerned. The general committee will have another important meeting this evening, the needlework committee will meet tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock and the archaeological committee will meet tomorrow evening.

Mrs. Page Blackburn, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Fairfield, of Shawnee avenue, has returned to her home at Decatur.

Helen, the two-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Linker, of 20 Marion street, died this afternoon, of exhaustion.

The case of Ellison vs. the Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance company, is on trial in the circuit court.

SWINDELED A HOTEL

That is the Charge Against Frank E. Moore.

Arrested in Winchester by Sheriff Melching.

Claims He Did Not Nor Intend to Beat the Landlord.

Circuit Court Jury Found Dell Pattee Not Guilty of Intoxication--Items of Interest.

Frank E. More and his wife were brought to Fort Wayne on an early morning train from Winchester by Sheriff Melching. Mr. Moore is charged with trying to beat a hotel bill.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore came to Fort Wayne early in September and registered at the Randall hotel, Mr. Moore claiming at the time to be a book agent.

On the evening of September 22 they left the Randall and the next day Landlord Stutesman received a letter from Moore explaining that he was suddenly called to Chicago and was unable to settle his board bill, but hoped to pay up in a short time. He gave his address as the "General Delivery, Chicago." He owed the hotel $22.77.

A few days' later it was learned that Moore did not go to Chicago, but instead had gone to Monroe, Ind. Sheriff Melching was notified and a warrant was issued for Moore's arrest.

The sheriff went to Monroe yesterday and learned that Mr. and Mrs. Moore, who had been visiting the wife's brother, near Monroe, had gone to Winchester.

He telegraphed to the officers at Winchester and when Sheriff Melching arrived at the latter city Mr. and Mrs. Moore were being held in the custody of the Randolph county sheriff.

The wife was not under arrest, but Sheriff Melching brought her to Fort Wayne and she is his guest at the jail residence.

Moore denies that he intented to beat his board bill, but says that he found it impossible to sell books here owing to the great interest taken in the street fair and was forced to leave without settling because he did not have the money. He left a trunk for security. Mr. and Mrs. Moore were married two years ago at Middleton, Ohio, and are much attached to each other. An effort is being made to settle the matter and it is believed Mr. Moore will not be prosecuted.

PATTEE NOT GUILTY.

The jury in the case against Dell Pattee, who was arrested by Officer Dickson for drunkenness, reached a verdict a few minutes after the case was given to them at 5 o'cloc[illegible] last evening. They were ordered [illegible] bring in a sealed verdict, but t[illegible] reached an agreement in ten m[illegible]utes, finding Pattee "Not guilty." Only one ballot was taken and every juryman voted for acquittal. The verdict was not a surprise to persons who heard the evidence, although the officers were positive in their statements that Pattee was intoxicated. The result may be a suit for damages.

MEDSKER STILL IN JAIL.

The case of wife desertion against Harry J. Medsker has not been settled. Although the wife is willing, on account of their child, to have him released and Mr. Bowser will willingly give him back his position, the officers are inclined to prosecute and the man may have a hearing now at any time unless the prosecutor relents.

THE death of Thomas Francis Bayard removes from the democratic party one of its best and ablest members. Mr. Bayard's public career was so clean and dignified that he accorded to a remarkable degree the esteem and confidence of men of the opposite party. In the senate of the United States his services were long, honorable and conspicuous. For many years he was almost by common consent esteemed as the ablest democrat in the country. As Mr. Cleveland's secretary of state he gave his admirers some disappointments because his administration was not marked by brilliancy and dash. But he was safe and in more recent light his career as secretary is regarded with general satisfaction. Mr. Bayard had been in voluntary political retirement since the expiration of his term of service as ambassador to Great Britain, though there is little doubt that his party in the state of Delaware would gladly have accepted his leadership again.

STEAD'S COMMENTS.

Commenting on the arrival of the American peace commissioners in Paris, William T. Stead, the English newspaper man, says:

"The new world has invaded the old world. In Paris today, at the Hotel Continental, is the headquarters of the army of invasion. It is a pacific invasion, no doubt, but the invaders are bent, if not on conquest and annexation, at least upon appropriation and extension of their boarders. The struggle now going on between the French authorities and the exposition commissioners brings forcibly home to the European mind the great question of the future. It is a miniature reproduction of a conflict of the forces, which looms even more gigantic before the eyes of mankind.

"The war between Spain and the United States was a revelation to the average Frenchman. When Dewey destroyed the Spanish fleet at Manila the scales began to fall from his eyes, and when Cervera's fleet met with the same fate he realized that a new naval power had been born into the world, inheriting, as one put it, 'the good fortune that always attended the English on the seas.' Early in the war the reports that the American fleet had been destroyed and that Sampson had been killed threw the Parisian populace into a paroxysm of delight. In those days no one here disguised his sympathies with Spain. But nowadays all agree to forget that, and they are already convinced that there were never such friends of the Americans as the French.

"There is no trace of any disposition in official quarters to make any difficulties in settling the terms of peace. The only demur made to the imperial expansion of the United States comes from experienced observers, like De Pressenze, of the Temps, who regret the new departure, not because it affects France, but because it endangers the American republic. The French are at present exhibiting to the world some deplorable results of dominant militarism, and they sigh when they see the new world gliding down the inclined plane which leads to Cæsarism. They declare that the annexation of the Antilles and the Philippine islands will necessitate the creation of a large standing army, the enrollment of a corps of functionaries, a departure from all traditions of the republic and a total transformation of the letter and spirit of the constitution.

"I see there still appears to be some question as to whether the European powers ever actually proposed to intervene in behalf of Spain. The story was that they decided to do so, and were only stopped by the blunt intimation from Lord Salisbury that if they ever attempted such a thing the British fleet would be placed under the orders of President McKinley. I have the highest official authority, both British and French, for saying that there was never any proposal from M. Hanotaux (the French minister for foreign affairs at the time) for intervention. I regret having destroyed the legend, but magna est veritas, and, however delighted John Bull might have been to lend a friendly hand to Uncle Sam, he never had the chance to do so, and for this reason—the European powers, France most of all, had too much sense."

LABOR COMMISSION'S WORK.

The forthcoming report of the state bureau of statistics will contain a review of the work accomplished by the Indiana labor commission since it was organized, June 16, 1897. In introducing the statistical information relating to the work of the commission, the chief of the bureau says:

"The wisdom of the enactment of the law by the last legislature, in creating a labor commission, is readily seen by the statement made to this bureau by the commissioners, given on following pages. Thirty-four strikes and disturbances of labor were in their hands for adjustment. Of these, three strikes were prevented, one boycott declared off and twenty-two settled. In nineteen of them increased wages resulted, in the adjustment. Settlement failed in only six of them, though finally in two of the latter the recommendations of the commissioners resulted in an advance of wages. In the work of the commissioners, not only 7,500 workingmen were restored to employment, but secured earnings of many thousands of dollars to them, and in far better conditions to all classes in the communition where these disturbances occurred. The brief period of the operation of this law under its wise administration has resulted in great benefits to labor, the state and the people generally.

"It is also to be noted that it was the Indiana Labor Commission which inaugurated the movement and brought about the conferences of the commissioners of Illinois, Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania during the great coal strike of 1897, and which finally resulted in its settlement and decided betterment of the coal miners of all these states. This was the first attempt at co-operation of the various state labor commissions, and the result was greatly beneficial to the thousands of miners and all other classes in the states mentioned."

BUILDING INSPECTOR

Fort Wayne Will Have Such an Officer Some Day.

The Sooner the Better Thinks Chief Hilbrecht and Col. C. E. Graves--Big Cities Have Them.

A citizen was discussing with Chief Hilbrecht, of the fire department, the benefits that might accrue from the appointment of a building inspector in this city, and that official expressed himself as greatly in favor of the creation of such an official and stated his reasons why.

"All good sized cities have a building inspector," said Mr. Hilbrecht, "and Fort Wayne is reaching the size where one will be needed. Such an inspector will see to it that all of the new buildings going up will have good fire proof walls, and be built substantially to withstand the ravages of fire."

This is not the first time the subject has been brought up and it is hardly likely that it will be the last. The fact of the matter is that Fort Wayne is falling in line with the ideas that hold good in metropolitan cities. From this time on the business buildings ought to be large and probably will be; at least this will be so in the central part of the city. That all such buildings going up are well protected from fire is a matter worth considering, for if such a precaution is not taken there may probably be a terrible loss by conflagration some day.

Another gentleman to pass on the subject was Col. C. E. Graves, secretary of the Board of Underwriters. He is strongly in favor of the appointment of an inspector, and says that the insurance men really ought to demand it in the near future.

Charles Jocquel, of the Twenty-eighth Indiana battery, who was very seriously ill with malarial fever, is now able to sit up. The young soldier is the son of Louis Jocquel, the Calhoun street stationer.

Washington	45	92	.328
St. Louis	34	100	.254

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Nick Young, president of the National league, says:

"At least seven clubs of the twelve will fall thousands of dollars short of their expenses on the year. I was surprised to hear that even Mr. Hanlon's great team, one of the best attractions in the league, will play to an actual loss on the year. Washington, St. Louis, Cleveland, Pittsburg, New York and Brooklyn will also be forced to delve into their pockets to the tune of many dollars in order to meet losses. Mr. Wagner has been especially unfortunate with the Washington club.

"The war, and that alone, is the cause of the poor attendance all over the major league circuit and throughout the minor leagues. We tried to fool ourselves early in the season with the delusion that the war would not affect our receipts to any great extent, but as the season advanced we were obliged to own up that it kept many a dollar from our turnstiles.

"I have numerous inquiries from the various club presidents and managers of our teams regarding the 154 game schedule, whether it should be carried again next season or whether we should return to the old 132-game assignment of championship dates. If the teams draw fairly well during the first two weeks in October the 154-game schedule will doubtless be continued for another year. If we find that the 154-game schedule does not pan out during the last two weeks of the season we will cut twenty-two games, though the championship season will begin as usual, in the middle of April.

"The four trip plan has certainly given the public one of the best pennant races we have ever enjoyed. These two extra trips cost money, but the public, you know, must be served, as they are the dictators."

A GAME FOR A PURSE.

The managers of the Shamrock and Crystal teams met last evening and perfected arrangements for the second game to be played between these teams for the amateur championship of the city. A purse will also be hung up on this game. A list of players on each team has been filed, and no changes will be made. Lincoln Bolinger, of Roanoke, will hold the indicator. The teams:

Shamrocks — Braiden, Robbins, Nolan, Heller, Smith, Reiley, Fitzpatrick, McDarby, Cherry, Raidy, Eising, Lauer and Moran.

Crystals—Hays, l. f.; Weldon, r. f.; Philabaum, 3; Collars, m.; McCarty, 1; Quinn, p.; Nill, s. s.; Baker, 2; Hollinger or Walter Welch, c.; Green, p.

The game will be played next Sunday afternoon at Lakeside. Robbins and Braiden will be in the points for the Shamrocks.

NOTES.

"Chick" Stahl yesterday made his third home run of the championship season.

Big Bill Phillips, of Indianapolis, was the winning pitcher of the Western league. He won twenty-nine games and lost ten, making his percentage of victories .744.

Stanley Robison telegraphs that the Clevelands will not play in Fort Wayne next Tuesday. An effort may be made later to have the Clevelands and another National league team play in Fort Wayne.

Hartzell is playing a fast right field for the Louisvilles while Dexter is laid up with an injury. And none of the Inter-State ball patrons believed that he was as good as Flood, Hartman, Beecher, Rickert and one or two others.

President Watkins, of Pittsburg, saps that dallying with the flagon that flows is less injurious to the ball player than wooing Mistress Fortune by medium of poker, hearts, or any other game of chance. It is petty gambling that breeds riots in ball teams.

Cunningham pitched his thirteenth successive victory yesterday for the Louisvilles. Clark Griffith was in the box against him for Chicago, but really it did not seem as if the two men were in the same class, so far superior was the work of the old Fort Wayne twirler.

The season of 1898 promises to be a marker in base ball history. It required the last games of the schedule to decide the Inter-State and Western league races, and now Baltimore and Boston threaten to indulge in the same sort of bruising finish. The Birds have three games to play in Boston, October 3, 4 and 5, and ten days later the Beaneaters have three in Baltimore to close the season. On these six games may hang the pennant.

The Kansas City Journal says: " 'Talk about people being superstitious,' said Dale Gear the other day, 'you ought to have seen the large and varied assortment of mascots which people sent me before that last game. I received four rabbits' feet, seven four-leaved clovers and a quarter which looked as if a railroad train had run over it. Some of these things came from women, who accompanied them with notes wishing me all kinds of good luck. I have never heard that a mashed coin would bring good fortune, but I wore it with all the other presents when I pitched that last game."

Charley Babb is circulating among his friends again after being laid up at St. Joe hospital for a week. Charley says says he would like to have a try in the outfield next season. The Inter-State has developed some high class twirlers and outfielders for the bigger leagues, but not one infielder has proven a success. Babb believes this is accounted for in the fact that Inter-State grounds have skin diamonds and when an infielder breaks into the National he is unable to handle the speedy hits over the grass infields. The Fort Wayne management will probably have a grass diamond next season provided the games are played at the foot of Calhoun street.

SPEEDY KLATAWAH.

He Traveled a Wonderful Mile For a Three-Year-Old.

Lowers the Record of Pacers for That Age to 2:05 1-2--Miss Logan Won the Race --John Nolan Also a Winner.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 29.—A new world's record for three-year-old pacers was one of the results of the racing at the Louisville Driving Fair association. Klatawah, driven by Keating, in the first heat of the Seelbach stakes, covered the mile in 2:05½, lowering his own record of 2:06¼, made at Peoria in July. The previous record was 2:07¾, by Directly. In spite of this remarkable performance, he lost the race to Miss Logan, who took the three subsequent heats of the $5,000 race.

The Douglas stakes was finished, only one heat remaining to be run. John Nolan, the heavily backed favorite, took the heat in a brilliant finish from Mattie Patterson, lowering his record to 2:08.

In the other unfinished race, the 2:15 trot, Tudor Chimes, driven by Geers, won in straight heats from Espy Boy, the favorite. Woodford C., yesterday's favorite, was drawn on account of sickness. More than $60,000 went into the pools last night on the Seelbach stake. The summaries:

MR. BAYARD IS DEAD.

Democratic Statesman Yields to the Conqueror.

He Came of Distinguished Family and His Public Services Were Valuable and Conspicuous.

DEDHAM, Mass., Sept. 29.—Thos. F. Bayard died at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at Karlstein, the summer residence of his daughter, Mrs. Samuel D. Warren, after an illness of six weeks. His death was without pain. His wife, his two daughters—Mrs. Warren and Miss Florence Bayard—and his son, Thomas F. Bayard, jr., saw him draw his last breath, and his third daughter, the Countess Lauenhaupt, was on her way to Dedham. The remains will be conveyed to Delaware and the funeral services will be held Saturday in the old Swedish church at Wilmington.

Today the body will be sent to Delaware, being due to arrive at Wilmington late Friday afternoon.

BAYARD'S REMARKABLE ANCESTRY.

Thomas Francis Bayard was born in Wilmington, Del, October 29, 1828. He came of a family which for four successive generations has represented the state of Delaware in the United States senate. The first of his ancestors to settle in that state was Peter, a son of Petrus Bayard, probably a collateral descendant of the celebrated Chevalier Bayard, and Annel Stuyvesant, Miss Stuyvesant being a sister of old Peter Stuyvesant, the last of the Dutch governors of the Netherlands. The younger Peter joined the Labadists, a religious sect that emigrated to New Amsterdam from Holland, after which, in 1675, he purchased from one of the native chiefs, for a paltry consideration, Bombay Hook, Maeesil and Indian Sachem, a magnificent tract. Among the most noted of the New York branch of the family was Nicholas Bayard, a New York statesman, who was so active in the execution of Leisler that later he was put on trial for his complicity in the proceedings, although he succeeded in securing his acquittal.

FAMILY'S PUBLIC SERVICES.

Richard Bassett, the great grandfather of the deceased, was a member of the convention that framed the constitution of the United States. He was also a presidential elector in 1797, casting his vote for the second president of the republic. From 1789 to 1793 he sat in the United States senate, and from 1798 to 1801 was governor of the state. His only daughter married James A. Bayard the first, who served four years in the house of representatives, was appointed minister to France, and then sat in the United States senate from 1804 until he was appointed by the president one of the commissioners who negotiated the treaty of Ghent, terminating the war of 1812. On his way home from Ghent he was notified of his selection as minister to Russia, a post which he declined in consequence of failing health. His son, James A. Bayard the second, having been defeated for the election to congress, the democratic party being in the minority in his district, he was elected in 1851 to the United States senate. He was re-elected, resigned, was reappointed by the governor and was re-elected by the legislature at the end of his partial term. He held also numerous prominent position in party councils and constitutional conventions.

BEGINNING OF HIS CAREER.

Thomas F. Bayard, son of James A. Bayard the second, received his education at Dr. F. L. Hawkes' Flushing school on Long Island, N. Y. His father intended that he should be a merchant, and, after passing a short time in a counting house in New York city, he entered the great West India house of Morris Wain & Co. in Philadelphia.

The young man's love of the law, however, would not down, and his father, yielding, took him into his Wilmington office, from which he passed to practice at the bar in 1851. Only two years later he was appointed United States district attorney for Delaware, after holding which office a year he resigned it. For two years, 1855 and 1856, he practiced law in Philadelphia, returning to Wilmington and practicing law there until his election in 1868 to succeed his father in the United States senate.

ON THE ELECTORAL COMMISSION.

Mr. Bayard received fifteen votes for president in the democratic national convention of 1872. In the convention of 1876, after receiving thirty-one votes, he furnished the two necessary to nominate Samuel J. Tilden. When, after the presidential contest, the returning board dispute threatened the peace of the nation, Senator Bayard, as one of the senate leaders, was made a member of the conference committee which prepared the bill creating the electoral commission. He served on the commission and insisted on keeping faith with the republicans in spite of the fact that he honestly believed that Tilden, and not Hayes, had been elected to the presidency.

In 1880 and again in 1884 Mr. Bayard's name was voted on in presidential nominating conventions of the democratic party.

WORK IN RECENT YEARS.

In selecting his cabinet in 1885 Mr. Cleveland chose Mr. Bayard as his secretary of state. The Bering sea fisheries controversy was a heritage of the office. Mr. Bayard's first work along the lines of this dispute was to negotiate a modus vivendi for the season already entered upon, with the understanding that the matter would be referred to congress in December, with recommendations for the authorization of a joint arbitration commission. In 1887 the joint commission met, and in February of the following year a fisheries treaty was negotiated, which, however, the senate rejected by a party vote. In the year following a twenty year exclusion treaty was negotiated with China. The convention being rejected by the latter power, the Chinese exclusion law was the retaliatory result. The sensational dismissal of Lord Sackville-West and Mr. Bayard's spirited correspondence with Lord Salisbury and other premiers of Europe and South America are well-remembered incidents of his administration of the state department.

Soon after his retirement from the state department Mr. Bayard, who had lost his first wife, was married to Mary Willing Clymer, daughter of the late Dr. Clymer, of the navy.

AMBASSADOR TO BRITAIN.

Immediately after Mr. Cleveland's second election Mr. Bayard visited him at Lakewood, and it was reported that the state portfolio was again offered him. The facts in the case never have been developed. The president, however, slated Mr. Bayard for the mission to Great Britain, delaying the appointment until the British foreign office, by accrediting Sir Julian Pauncefote as ambassador should make it possible to bestow like dignity on the American representative. Such action having been taken Mr. Bayard was nominated to the post, and became the first United States ambassador at the court of St. James. During the period of his service there the American embassy enjoyed a distinctly new popularity with English society and the diplomatic corps. Mr. Bayard's public utterances and his engaging personality promoting the best of feeling in both social and government circles.

HAPPY MOTHERS AND HEALTHY CHILDREN.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Goes Straight to the Cause of All Female Troubles and Assures a Healthy Maternity.

Mrs. M. SINGER, 104 Hudson Ave., Rochester, N. Y., writes to Mrs. Pinkham as follows:

"When I applied to you for advice I had been suffering some years from debility, nervousness, etc. I had had several miscarriages and was pregnant when I wrote to you.

"I am grateful to say that after taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was considerably better, and after using three more it brought me where I am to-day. I am well, and the mother of a three-months' old baby.

"Doctors had failed to help me. I have no one to thank but Mrs. Pinkham and her wonderful remedy."

Mrs. ELLA DUNGAN, Reeder's Mills, Iowa, writes:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I thank you for what your medicine and advice have done for me.

"I have a baby two months old. When he was born I was sick only fifteen minutes, whereas with my other children I was sick for two or three days, and also suffered with my left leg, and could get nothing to relieve the pain but morphine. My leg did not trouble me at all this time. I had no after pains and was not as weak as I had been before.

"I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly. May God bless you in your noble work."

Mrs. J. W. PRUETT, Medford, Oregon, says:

"My health, also the baby's, we owe to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. JOHN W. LONG, Wyoming, Iowa, writes:

"I had shooting pains all over my body, was very weak and nervous. I could not straighten up. I wished to become a mother but was afraid I never could. Seventeen months ago I got some of your Vegetable Compound, and after taking half a bottle was much relieved. I took four bottles and was cured. Now I have a big baby boy which I feel I owe to your Compound. Many thanks for your kind advice."

A Million Women Have Been Benefited by Mrs. Pinkham's Advice and Medicine

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement, that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at Dreier & Bro.'s drug store. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters;' and, to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cts per bot. at Dreier & Bros. drug store.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. A Cure for Sleeplessness.

I commenced using your Ramon's Liver Pills & Tonic Pellets the first of December, 1896, for Heart and Liver trouble. I will never forget the good they have done me. I could not sleep, was short of breath and, in fact, could not work any. I have used a few boxes and today I feel as well as I ever did in my life.—G. M. Britton, Holbrook, W. PRESIDENT'S TRIP.

Getting Ready to Journey to Omaha.

Many Cities Send Him Invitations to Visit Them, But He is Obliged to Decline Them All.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Many cities not heretofore considered wish to be included in the itinerary of the president's trip west in connection with the Omaha exposition. With the outlining of the plans for the trip, invitations of a most urgent character, both by telegram and by letter, have been dispatched to the president in the interest of those anxious to entertain the president. Mr. McKinley, however, has planned to spend only a fortnight away from Washington, and this will necessitate a reluctant declination of numerous invitations. Assistant Secretary of War Meiklejohn had a long interview with the president today, going over the arrangements for the trip.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

Residents of Fourth Street Petition for Asphalt.

Only Two More Days to Pay the Vehicle Tax, Then Arrests Will Commence--Notes.

The residents of the northside are not to be outdone by the southsiders in building up a pretty city. This morning M. J. Maroney and twenty other residents of Fourth street filed with the board of works a petition asking that the street be paved with sheet asphalt from Sherman street to Calhoun street. This means seven squares more of asphalt on the northside. Before winter comes Cass and High street will have been paved with sheet asphalt, and with the brick pavement on Wells street, asphalt on Fourth and intimations of more petitions to follow, the northside will some day be a veritable home of fine streets. The contract for the pavement on Fourth street cannot possibly be let this season, and besides petitions have been filed for pavements on Brackenridge, Holman and other streets, which will have to be first considered.

GET YOUR TAG.

Only two more days in which to pay the vehicle tax. After Friday the law requires that every person without a tag on his vehicle must be arrested and Superintendent Gorsline received orders to see that all riders and drivers have tags for their vehicles. It is much safer and cheaper to pay the taxes before there is a chance to attach a penalty and Comptroller Berghoff says that the ordinance will certainly be enforced.

NOTES.

The board of works will meet in regular session tonight.

The city hall will be handsomely decorated, but if the coronation stand is erected it will be built at the individual expense of the councilmen and city officials.

John Dalman is improving his Fairfield avenue home, a fine porch being included in the betterments.

BOILER EXPLODES.

Killing Engineer Johnson and Injuring Fireman Regan.

Train Was Running at a Twenty-five Mile Rate When the Accident Occurred—Local and Personal.

A freight locomotive on the Wabash blew up at 8 o'clock last night while the train was running twenty-five miles an hour one mile east of the little town of Wea and four miles west of Lafayette. Portions of the engine were carried nearly 200 yards and Engineer Oscar Johnson, of Lafayette, was buried under the wreck, while Fireman Jerry Regan was hurled a distance from the wreck. The engineer died soon after he was rescued and the fireman cannot recover. The train was composed of three cars and a caboose, all of which were piled in a mass along the track. The conductor and brakeman in the rear car escaped with slight bruises. The engine was almost totally demolished, fragments being found 500 feet from the scene of the explosion. Fireman Regan was thrown some distance from the wreck, but Engineer Johnson was buried under the debris and extricated only after several hours of labor. The suffering of each was pitiable. The engineer begged the rescuers to end his misery by killing him. A large crowd gathered and assisted in digging out the dying man. The track was torn up for 300 feet and the rails twisted into all shapes. It was necessary to lay a new track around the wreck. The wrecking train left Lafayette at 9 o'clock, returning at 12 o'clock with the two injured men. Johnson died shortly before the train reached that city. Regan cannot recover. No cause is assigned for the explosion.

Oscar Johnson was married, but had no children. He was quite well known in Wabash railway circles in this city. He came here in the spring of 1894 and on July 4 of that year took a position as fireman on the road. Up to the time of the change in the time card which resulted in taking off the Lafayette accommodation, he was with Engineer J. G. Storze on that run. Then he went to Peru, where he was given another run, and on September 1 was promoted to engineer and removed to Lafayette.

POLICEMEN'S TRAINING SCHOOL.

In addition to being one of the best equipped places in the country, the Bass blacksmith shop is also geining quite a reputation as a training school for aspirants for police honors. That establishment has already furnished five men for that service and has plenty of others from which to select more patrolmen when the city needs them. Those now in service who worked in the Bass blacksmith shop prior to going on the force are Charles Spilner, Abraham Geogline, Nicholas Petgen, William Rohrer and A. O. Phipps.

The Nickel Plate will run a special train from Bellevue, Ohio, and Wanatah, Ind., to this city during the carnival at one fare for the round trip. The trains will arrive at 11 a. m. and returning will leave at 11 p. m.

October 1 the Chicago and Alton road will cease using car gates, which went into general use on that line January 1, 1893. The car gate system did everything expected of it and was eminently satisfactory to the officials, but the customers of the road object to it and it has been doomed.

William Lohrman, of Kendallville, was attending to business and calling upon old friends in the city yesterday. He is now fairly settled on the farm and says he likes his situation better than his former one, a locomotive engineer. For seventeen years Mr. Lohrman was employed on the Pittsburg road.

The Missouri Pacific has decided to meet the cut rate on wheat and corn made by the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe. The new order is effective October 1, when the Missouri Pacific will put in a rate of five cents less on wheat and two cents on corn than the present tariff rate for points on the line in Kansas and Nebraska. It is expected that other roads will follow suit.

A change effecting three men went into effect at the Nickel Plate round house today. Harry Whittles, who for several years assisted his father in doing light locomotive repair work, has been promoted to firing on the road and his place in the shop has been taken by John Miles, the day caller. Elmer Young has been engaged as caller to take the place vacated by Miles.

Ed Sherbundy, a passenger fireman on the Wabash, returned to his duties on the road today, after assisting in nursing his brother, Frank, through a course of typhoid malaria. Frank Sherbundy is a member of the Twenty-eighth battery. He is now able to sit up.

General Foreman W. S. Cooper and Traveling Engineer N. B. Whitsel went to Lafayette last night to view the wrecked engine, No. 233. This engine was built by the Rhode Island Locomotive works in 1890 and rebuilt a short time ago. It was considered one of the best of its class in the service. The particulars of the accident are given elsewhere.

S. H. Mallory, a leading railroad contractor, who is now building 300 miles of railroad between Roswell, N. M., and Amarilla, Texas, says that next year will be one of the greatest years for railroad building this country ever saw. He says the hard times have kept companies from making contemplated extensions, but conditions have changed and the betterments will now be made.

The Huntington News-Democrat: "Jack Rayle, the popular New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio brakeman, of Galion, on one of the crews which runs over the Erie, went to Fort Wayne Monday. Jack had some strange tales to tell of his sight seeing. 'Why,' he said, 'I saw a mound up there as high as the Baptist church steeple in Huntington, with steps and an elevator going clear to the top. And when I got up there I saw the prettiest lake, right on top of that mound.'"

JOINT INSTITUTE.

Agriculturists of Two Townships Meet to Swap ideas.

St. Joe and Washington Townships Form a Permanent Organization—The Prizes.

The farmers of St. Joe and Washington townships held a joint institute at the state farm yesterday and formed a permanent organization. The meeting was opened by the Hon. J. M. Robinson, and other addresses were made to fill in the time up to the dinner hour.

In the afternoon Dr. C. B. Stemen delivered an address, and was followed by Superintendent Johnson, W. F. DeVilbiss and others. The following resolutions were adopted:

"Resolved, That we, the citizens St. Joe and Washington townships here assembled, proceed to make this a permanent organization by the election of the proper officers, and that the present meeting be considered the first annual meeting of said Fair and Institute association.

"Resolved, That the thanks of those present be and are hereby tendered to Messrs. Johnson and Reichelderfer for the many courtesies show in providing this beautiful place of meeting and for the music furnished by the state band.

"Resolved, That the thanks of the meeting be tendered to Messrs. Melching, Johnson, Ferguson, Robinson, Stemen and others who so generously contributed to the premium fund.

"Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the several city papers for publication."

The judges, Messrs. Kell, Blystone and Young, awarded premiums as follows:

Wheat—John Gillie, first prize; S. H. Davis, second.

Oats—John Gillie, first prize.

Corn—E. Drake, first prize; George Thumm, second; S. H. Davis, third.

Potatoes—George Thumm, first and second prizes; J. W. Young, third.

Best display of grain and produce—George Thumm.

W. H. DeVilbiss proved to be the prize fruit grower, taking first, second and third prizes for apples and the three prizes for peaches, and the prize for the best general display of fruits. A permanent organization was effected by the farmers of the two townships and the following officers elected:

President—George Thumm.
Secretary—James Notestine.
Treasurer—J. E. Reichelderfer.

Pyramid Pile Cure Cures Piles Quickly, Painlessly, Without Danger.

People go along for years suffering with piles. Then try this, and that and the other thing; from carrying a buckeye to getting treatment from a physician. They obtain temporary relief, maybe, but they are never quite cured. A little strain in lifting, excessive fatigue, a little constipation or a little diarrhoea and the piles come back.

They don't seem to amount to much, but they banish sleep and appetite. No position is comfortable. There is intense local pain and that dreadful feeling of weight in the perineum.

Maybe in the early stages some of the many salves on sale will afford temporary relief. If the case is of long standing there is only one speedy and sure remedy. It is Pyramid Pile Cure. Even in the light cases it is the safest thing to use. Other applications may cure and may not. Pyramid Cure is always certain, always reliable and always brings comfort at once. Its prompt use saves months of severe suffering. In extreme cases it will save surgical operations and their attendant dangers and discomforts.

It is better than the knife. Will cure easier, quicker and safer. Thousands have used it. Thousands have been cured by it.

The cost is trifling compared with what it does. The price is 50 cents. Most anybody would gladly pay ten dollars to be rid of piles.

Druggists sell Pyramid Pile Cure. If yours hasn't he will get it from the Pyramid Pile Drug Co., of Marshall, Mich., (sole manufacturers.)

What nobler, better ambition can a young couple have than to live loving, helpful lives, and then, in a green old age, look back over a life that has been mutually self-sacrificing, useful and successful? The one great stumbling-block that stands between most married couples and this ideal married career is ill-health. If both husband and wife would take proper care of their health, there would be more hale, hearty and happy old people in the world. If, when a man suffers from the little ills of life, he will resort to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the chances are that he will avoid the big and fatal illnesses. This great medicine gives a man a healthy hunger, facilitates the flow of digestive juices, invigorates the liver, purifies and enriches the blood and builds firm, muscular, healthy flesh tissue.

It is an old saying that women are hard to kill. There is some truth in this, as far as the majority of illnesses are concerned. There is one class of disorders, however, that quickly undermine any woman's general health. No woman can retain her strength who suffers from weakness and disease of the delicate and important organs that make wifehood and motherhood possible. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is an unfailing cure for all disorders of this description. It acts directly on the sensitive organs concerned, in a natural, soothing way. It makes them strong, healthy and vigorous. It prepares them to bear the burdens of maternity. It is the greatest of nerve tonics. The woman who uses it will bear healthy, happy children, and live to a ripe old age.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. By all medicine dealers.

Dignified Dress Goods

In the plain, genteel weaves.

These are the fabrics much sought after this season, aud from which tailors and dressmakers love to make smart costumes; for here are the coverts and cheviots and the camel's hair weaves that are as soft as a kitten's back; the Drap d'Ete, lustrous and serviceable; the whipcords, the new poplins and broadcloths; also a host of two-tone fabrics, diagonals and the very swell Bayadere effects.

Plain in weave, but rich in effect---a gathering that satisfies by its completeness.

Trusses!

There should be no guess work in the fitting of trusses. A truss will never do what it should do, unless the fit is absolutely perfect. and the fitting of them

We fit Trusses. We have fitted them for years. Our experience is backed by an assortment that includes every new idea and common sense feature in truss making.

DON'T RISK

Many sacrifice comfort and safety by wearing ill-fitting trusses. Others who could be cured by a properly fitting one, are risking life by wearing none.

LET US FIT YOU

The price will be just as comfortable as the Truss.

PLEASANT

⁜ REFLECTIONS. ⁜

There are pleasant reflections in our big triplicate mirror when a customer who is trying our kind of made to measure clothing for the first time, discovers that his new suit fits at the first trying on. That makes him smile--and when it dawns upon him fully that it's a little better suit than his last one from so and so's, and cost him $5 or so less, then that smile is limited by the size of his face. Then we get orders from his friends.

Hibernian Rifles, Attention.

The Hibernian Rifles are hereby ordered to meet at Library hall at 8 o'clock this evening to make arrangements to attend the funeral of Private Mike Motherwell, of the Twenty-eighth Indiana battery.

J. E. FORD, Capt.

Answer to Correspondent.

Major—No, sir. The picture of the fat fellow on the bill boards is not a picture of George Ohneck after the voting was over last night.

Fred Paul, of 48 Archer avenue, is very sick.

Samuel Alexander is able to be out again after a severe illness.

The ten-year-old son of James M. Smith is suffering with appendicitis.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. William J. Taylor, of Lafayette street—a daughter.

J. M. Kane has returned from New York city, where he purchased holiday goods.

John Welch has returned with a force of men from Bluffton, where he had a big galvanized iron work contract.

Wayne Tent, No. 54, K. O. T. M., will meet tonight in regular review. Business of great importance will be transacted.

Charles Holverstott, of South Broadway, who has been quite low with typhoid pneumonia, is reported to be improved.

W. P. Denny left last night for Philadelphia and Trenton, N. J., in the interest of the Dental Cuspidor company, a new concern of this city.

The annual meeting of St. Margaret's Guild, of Trinity parish, will be held in the parish house tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

Miss Emma Flory and Herman Thany, of Bluffton, spent the early part of the week in this city, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fischer, of Hoagland avenue.

Officer Cheviron found a pair of shoes in front of Frank Gruber's cigar store last night. The owner can have the same by calling at the police station and proving property.

Rathbone Sisters will entertain at a progressive pedro party and dance at True Blue's hall this evening. The committees having the affair in charge have worked hard and a good time is assured.

Mrs. George Ashley, who is down with a peculiar type of blood disease, remains in a critical condition. Her case is the only one of the kind that has come to the notice of Fort Wayne physicians for years.

Miss Densel, of New Haven, was operated on for appendicitis by Drs. Porter and Duemling at St. Joseph hospital last Tuesday. Had the operation been delayed another day the result would have been fatal.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koch, of Cincinnati, who resided in Fort Wayne up to two years ago, are here visiting friends. Mr. Koch was formerly a cigarmaker in this city. By the death of his father in Cincinnati last June he inherited a fortune of $100,000.

One drunk, arrested by Officer Borgman, while driving along Calhoun street, was fined $1 and costs by Mayor Scherer this morning. The prisoner was one of the colored men in the employ of the Alcatraz company and his fine was settled.

A telegram was yesterday received by Sister Superior Hyacinth, of the St. Joseph hospital, from an officer of the military camp at Lexington, asking if ten nurses could be spared from the hospital to work among the sick soldiers. The hospital here has no extra nurses and can spare the services of none.

THE ACCIDENTS.

John Kohler, an employe at Geake's stone yard, is confined to his home on the south side by injuries received while at work. His leg was badly sprained while he was assisting in the removal of a heavy block of stone.

SPLIT THE EYEBALL.

The six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Schwietzer, while carrying a pair of scissors, fell to the floor and the point of one of the scissors blades penetrated the eyeball. The child is under the care of Dr. Wheelock at Hope hospital. The eyesight will probably be saved.

SPRAINED ANKLE.

Eddie Lukens, the young son of Col. A. T. Lukens, sustained a badly sprained ankle while playing foot ball.

A SOLDIER'S FUNERAL.

Obsequies of Private Motherwell Will Take Place Saturday Morning.

The funeral of Private Motherwell will take place Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, from the Church of the Precious Blood, in Bloomingdale, the Rev. Father Francis Nigsche officiating. The battery, of which the deceased was a member will attend in a body. Both of the infantry companies, in command of Captain Reese and Captain Meyer, will also attend, and it is probable that the G. A. R. will be in attendance.

SURGERY TOO LATE.

Master Alfred R. Smith Dies After an Operation.

The Lad Suffers With Appendicitis Several Days--Remains Will be Shipped to Decatur.

Alfred R. Smith, the eleven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Smith, of 316 Maumee avenue, died at the St. Joseph hospital at a late hour last night, after having undergone an operation for appendicitis.

The lad had been ill several days, but it was not decided until yesterday afternoon to perform an operation. The lad was removed to the hospital, where Dr. Harrod and Dr. Porter performed the surgery, but too late. The patient survived only a few hours.

The remains will be shipped Saturday morning to Decatur, Ind., where other members of the family are buried.

ECZEMA FROM BIRTH

Our little daughter had Eczema from birth. The parts afflicted would become terribly inflamed, and water would ooze out like great beads of perspiration, finally this would dry up and the skin would crack and peel off. She suffered terribly. Had to put mittens on her hands to keep her from scratching. Two of our leading physicians did not help her. After bathing her with CUTICURA SOAP, I applied CUTICURA (ointment) freely, and gave her CUTICURA RESOLVENT regularly. She improved at once and is now never troubled. The statements I have made are absolutely true and not exaggerated in any way.

TAMMANY'S CHOICE.

Augustus Van Wyck Nominated for Governor.

He is a Brother of Gotham's Present Mayor.

State Gets Through Without Any Trouble.

Platform of Empire State Democracy is Silent on Silver—A Bolt That Was Itself Bolted.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 29.—The bright skies and clear atmosphere of the early morning found no parallel in the political situation preceding the reassembling of the democratic state convention. Before many delegates had arisen this morning the leaders were about the corridors and at 8:30 o'clock it was announced from Mr. Croker's headquarters that the New York and Kings county delegations had united on Augustus VanWyck, of Brooklyn, a brother of Mayor VanWyck, of New York, for governor and that the mayor would be withdrawn.

For men who were up until long after 2 o'clock this morning the leaders were particularly active. At 7 o'clock Ex-Senator Hill left his room and went to a brief conference. Shortly afterward Elliott Danforth, who is a candidate, came along and had a chat with John B. Stanchfield, also a candidate. In the meantime Senator McCarren, of Brooklyn, and Richard Croker were having a conference and a great deal of telegraphing was done.

JUDGE VANWYCK BROUGHT OUT.

Then at 8:30 o'clock there came an announcement that the Kings and New York delegations had combined on Judge Augustus VanWyck. Senator McCarren said:

"We are going to nominate Judge VanWyck and we will have 290 votes on the first ballot. Only 226 are necessary for a choice. Besides the New York and Kings county solid vote we will get votes from Oneida, Rensselaer, Erie, Columbia and Ulster and some scattering ones. We have not settled upon the rest of the ticket."

A few minutes after Senator McCarren made this statement, Senator Hill walked along the corridor.

SENATOR HILL'S OPINION.

He was smiling and in reply to questions said:

"Yes, I understand that the New York and Kings county delegates have united on Judge VanWyck for a candidate. At the same time none of the up-state candidates have withdrawn and I believe that all of them will get into the convention. I don't know of any up-state delegates pledged to Mr. VanWyck, but in return for favors shown other candidates by Tammany they may throw some votes."

BUSINESS BEGINS.

When the convention met soon after noon Frederick Schraub was elected permanent chairman and was escorted to the chair. He made an address in which he scored the republican administration; charged the national government with criminal neglect of troops in the Spanish war, and said:

"Everywhere democrats were in the van. Dewey, Schley, Hobson, Lee, Wheeler, democratic heroes all, have written high their names in the American temple of fame."

In conclusion he said:

"Momentous questions affecting the future policy of America must be passed upon by the next national congress. It should be the earnest effort of every democrat to so shape this convention that it shall render possible to return to the upper house our beloved Senior Senator Edward Murphy."

THE PLATFORM.

The report of the committee on resolutions was then read as follows:

"The democratic party of the state of New York in convention assembled declares as follows:

"It congratulates the country upon the successful termination of a war undertaken not for conquest or aggrandizement, but in the interests of humanity, liberty and civilization. We glory in the patriotic devotion and valor of our brave soldiers and sailors who have honored the American people and heightened the lustre of our national fame. The scandalous abuse by the president of his power of appointment in scattering army commissions among inexperienced and incompetent civilians as rewards to personal favorites and almost to the exclusion of experienced officers in the service is largely accountable for the fearful suffering and the appalling loss of life among the gallant soldiers that have brought disgrace upon the administration and a sense of shame to the nation. A democratic congress will, if chosen by the people, rigidly investigate the conduct of the war and expose and punish all who may be responsible for the unnecessary deaths, privations and sufferings of the soldiers."

The resolutions next say:

"We demand justice and equal taxation, no tax dodging. We denounce all attempts to evade the burdens of taxation upon personal property by pretended changes of residence or otherwise. Under the constitution and laws of our state eligibility to public office and liability to personal taxation both depend upon long residence. If the affidavits and official statements of the republican candidate for governor are true he is ineligible to the office of governor; if false, he has committed perjury and is morally disqualified. He cannot escape from his dilemma—there is either legal disqualification or moral unfitness."

When the reading of the platform was completed, Delegate Pierce, of Monroe, attempted to speak on the silver question, but was ruled out. The chairman announced that nominations for the office of governor were in order. When Chautauqua was called, M. Z. Haven, of Syracuse, named Mayor James K. McGuire of Syracuse.

Andrew McLain, of Kings, presented the name of Augustus Van Wyck.

William F. Mackie, of Erie, nominated Judge Robert C. Titus.

Judge S. S. Taylor, of Chemung, presented the name of John B. Stanchfield for governor.

VAN WYCK NOMINATED.

The vote for governor, as announced, was: Van Wyck, 350; Titus, 41; McGuire, 21; Stanchfield, 36.

TICKET COMPLETED.

The ticket nominated this afternoon is as follows:

For Governor—Augustus Van Wyck, of Kings.
For Lieutenant Governor—Elliott Danforth, of Chenango.
For Secretary of State—George W. Battin, of Niagara.
For Comptroller—Edwin S. Atwater, of Duchess.
For State Treasurer—E. B. Norris, of Wayne.
For State Engineer and Surveyor—Martin Schenck, of Rensselaer.
For Attorney General—Thomas F. Conway, of Clinton.

CHEERS FOR BRYAN.

A mention of the name of William Jennings Bryan by Thomas Carmody, in seconding the nomination of Stanchfield, produced the greatest demonstration witnessed in the convention.

Delegates stood on chairs waving hats, while from the galleries men waved hats and overcoats, and one man grabbed a Cuban flag from the decorations and waved it amidst the wildest excitement. The demonstration continued for several minutes.

A DIFFERENTIATED SPLIT.

The delegates of the Chicago platform democracy, at a meeting held at the city hall late last night to organize a bolt of the regular democratic ticket should the platform of 1896 be ignored, was split nearly even by a bolt among its own members.

Dissatisfied by a ruling of Chairman Henry M. McDonald, of New York, half or nearly half of the delegates followed the lead of Calvin E. Keach, of Lansburgh, and quitted the hall, after a meeting at which disorder prevailed to an extent that the presiding officer was powerless to control and motions and counter-motions were lost in a maze of parliamentary entanglements.

There were 142 delegates at the calling of the conference, out of the 150 entitled to seats, upon the basis of three to each senatorial district. Resolutions were introduced providing that in the event of the democratic state convention ignoring the declaration of the Chicago platform, the committee on organization, consisting of one member from each senatorial district, meet within forty-eight hours and select candidates for all places on the state ticket and procure signatures to place such candidates in nomination. Discussion of the resolutions led to much bad feeling and finally on the chair declaring a motion to table the resolutions lost, Mr. Keach and his followers took umbrage and bolted the conference and those who remained adopted the resolution.

VOTING TODAY.

People of Canada to Decide a Great Question.

In Every District of the Dominion Ballots Are Being Cast for or Against Prohibition of the Liquor Traffic.

QUEBEC, Sept. 29.—One of the most interesting elections ever held in Canada will take place today. In every election district of the dominion the electors will vote upon prohibition. Never before has the question of prohibition been submitted to the people of so large a territory.

In all the providences of Canada the people will be given the opportunity to express themselves as for or against the absolute prohibition of the sale, manufacture, importation and use of any and all kinds of intoxicants in all parts of Canada.

The liberal government now in power has given to the people this opportunity for expressing themselves upon the great question, but no pledges are made by the government as to what course will be followed in case the people vote for prohibition.

It is not expected that more than one-half the registered vote of the dominion will be cast upon this question and the opponents of prohibition say that even if prohibition is carried the liberal government, on account of the small vote, will refuse to enact any prohibition laws upon the ground that the vote does not give a fair and adequate expression of the will of the people.

GREAT EXCITEMENT.

Very Serious Situation Prevails at Pana.

Citizens Patrol Streets Armed to the Teeth.

Feeling is Bitter Against Negro Miners.

Colored Men Are Penned Up in Their Stockades to Avoid Further Conflict—Negroes Were Wounded.

PANA, Ill., Sept. 29.—Intense excitement prevailed here today as a result of last night's street riot between the imported negro miners and the union miners.

The principal streets were filled with miners and citizens armed to the teeth. The negro arrested last night, who attempted to take Policeman Smith's life by an attack with a knife and whose arrest started the riot, failed to appear in court today for trial.

Mine Operator George V. Penwell, who gave bail for the negro, also failed to appear. Warrants were issued today for all the negroes concerned in the riot.

How many negroes were wounded and how severely cannot be learned. No one is permitted to enter the negro stockades and the operators refuse to give out any information. H. E. Bishop, a bystander, is the only white citizen wounded.

The negroes have not shown up on the streets today and it is thought the operators will keep them within the stockades until the excitement subsides.

TO SAVE THE COLON.

Lieutenant Hobson Feels Sure of Success.

The Vizcaya May Also be Raised—Government Ready to Give Him All Necessary Assistance.

PLAYA DEL ESTE, Cuba, Sept. 26.—Naval Constructor Hobson was here on the tug Chapman yesterday. He is living on it, quarantined, but not ill. Asked if he abandoned work on the Cristobal Colon, he said:

"No, indeed, I have every hope of getting it off. If the government will furnish men and machinery I will not come north unless I bring it with me."

Mr. Hobson declares the saving of the Colon means more engineering than wrecking. It lies on its starboard beam ends, the stern on a steep, rocky beach.

It is afloat from midships forward. He will camp an engineer force ashore and build a suspension bridge to the ship, with travelers on overhead cables in order to transfer heavy weights to shore.

Pumps and boilers will be used to ship air bags under the deck of the port side forward and raise the bow even with the stern. Then Hobson will swing the ship broadside to the beach and there right it to patch the holes and pump it out.

Mr. Hobson said nothing but a gale could spoil his plans. Engineers are wanted immediately. Forty air bags came yesterday for use on the other ships.

Hobson left later for the wrecks of the Almirante Oquendo and Vizcaya to remove the former's guns to the Leonidas and to make a final inspection of the Vizcaya. He hopes to save that vessel also.

HOBSON CAN GO AHEAD.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Acting Secretary Allen, who has been directly in charge of the arrangements made with the wrecking companies for raising such of the Spanish warships sunk or stranded in the battle of July 3d as can be recovered, said today, referring to Constructor Hobson's work on the Teresa, that the navy department had given the young constructor all of the assistance which it was possible to extend in the prosecution of his work. Moreover, it is now proposed to give him further aid in his effort to raise the Colon, by far the finest ship of the Spanish squadron.

Whatever credit has been earned by Constructor Hobson by reason of the Teresa would, in the opinion of Mr. Allen, be largely exceeded if the attempt to raise the Colon results successfully. In the case of this ship, the young constructor has pledged his professional reputation against the unanimous opinion of all of the expert wreckers, who have examined the ship. Yet, the navy department is unhesitatingly supporting Hobson's judgment as is indicated by the fact that yesterday it shipped from New York $20,000 worth of specially manufactured rubber air bags to be used in lifting the Colon.

Aside from the sentimental reason for sparing no effort to save the ship, the navy department is satisfied, from the reports of the divers who have investigated her condition, that she is well worth, from a purely monetary point of view, an expenditure of a considerable percentage of her original value, about $1,000,000, if there is a reasonable prospect of raising her.

Mrs. Frank Greer's art reception yesterday afternoon was a feast for the eyes and a feast for the soul and the large number of admirers of the keramic art were well repaid for responding to the invitation to attend. The display yesterday consisted of china decoration, mostly raised gold and enamel, embracing some specimens which were far ahead of anything of the kind ever shown in the city. Mrs. Greer has spent several weeks in New York to obtain new ideas in this class of painting and her recent work shows some original and beautiful creations. The work of Mr. Greer, too, is strictly new and shows the touch of an artist. The little Misses Ruth and Helen Caldwell ushered the guests into the parlor. Mrs. P. J. McDonald assisted Mrs. Greer in receiving the callers. Mrs. Henry Wolfe, with the aid of Mrs. Barnes and Miss Meegan, served punch and cakes. Mrs. Greer gave her second reception this afternoon.

SOMETHING NEW.

Local Postoffice Orders to be Issued Hereafter.

Postmaster Page Receives Instructions This Morning—A Banking System Inaugurated.

This morning Postmaster Page received from the first assistant postmaster general a circular which will interest the business men and the public in general.

The circular orders the issue of money orders on the local postoffice, something that has heretofore been impossible to obtain. By this new rule a person may go to the Fort Wayne postoffice and procure a postoffice order payable at the same office. Whether the public will profit much by the privilege is a matter that cannot be told until it is tried but there are times, perhaps, when the local postoffice order will be a convenience, as for instance on Saturdays when the banks close at 1 o'clock.

The postoffice order is thus equivalent to a check on a bank and in sending through the mail, or otherwise, will answer the same purpose.

A BANKING SYSTEM.

The department has also notified postmasters that postoffice money order offices in towns where there are no banks shall receive deposits and issue money order certificates for the same, the certificates to be payable upon presentation at any time. New Haven and other surrounding towns will come in on this new order.

THE CARNIVAL QUEEN

Miss Velma Ohneck Will Sway the Scepter.

Elected the Honor by an Overwhelming Majority—Received 5,648 Votes—Close of an Exciting Contest.

Velma Ohneck is queen.

The verdict was reached and the election was made about 11 o'clock, or a little later, at the Y. M. C. A. building last night, when with a vote of 5,648 she captured the honor. Miss Alice Crane, with 2,903, was second, and Miss Mae Williams, with 2,025½ was third.

At the close of box voting at 6 o'clock last evening the various candidates occupied the following positions:

Mae Williams	[illegible]
Velma Ohneck	[illegible]
Alice Crane	[illegible]
Elizabeth Knight	[illegible]
Maude Frank	[illegible]
[illegible]	[illegible]
[illegible]	21
[illegible]	20
Mrs. O. W. McDonald	15
Hazel [illegible]	11
Mrs. [illegible]	11
Helen [illegible]	10
Emily Hood	[illegible]
Scattering	[illegible]
Total	[illegible]

As was announced the open voting commenced in the large assembly room in the Y. M. C. A. building at 8 o'clock, and there was a large crowd in there when the doors were thrown open, which was constantly augmented as the evening wore away. When the time for secret voting came there was scarcely standing room down stairs and the gallery was crowded. Shortly after the hour named President Randall, of the street fair association, arose and after making a few general remarks introduced Hon. S. M. Foster as president of the evening. Mr. Foster made an exceedingly clever address of about five minutes, during which he succeeded in jollying everybody in the room.

Mr. Foster, it must be remembered, is one of the officers of the Fort Wayne driving club and he made his speech on the race track order and grew quite humorous at times. The trend of his remarks, however, was that people who were present should not hesitate to become separated from their money. He announced the order of the voting and stated that John Morris, jr., would be the official timekeeper and that Mr. Keegan's committee, the hall committee, was then ready to receive votes which would be posted on the bulletin board every ten minutes. Voting then commenced and at 9:45, the hour set for the close of open voting, the count stood:

Alice Crane	[illegible]
Velma Ohneck	[illegible]
Mae Williams	[illegible]

During the next fifteen minutes there was a busy scene about the judge's desk and envelopes came in plentiful profusion. The excitement was intense and when promptly at 10 o'clock the timekeeper announced the vote closed a big sigh went up from nearly every breast in the room.

John T. Dougall, of the News, was the scorer and he was the cynosure of all eyes, as the newspaper amateur usually says. His handwriting was not so remarkable for its symmetry and beauty as for the effect it produced on the audience as each vote was recorded. There were some big envelopes and the very first one, a very harmless looking affair, contained 1,115 votes for Miss Crane.

That was the largest vote of the evening although Miss Ohneck received 960 and 850 and several votes of 300 and 500 each. Miss Williams' high vote was 537½. The result was finally reached giving Miss Ohneck a clear majority of over 750 above her two principal opponents. She was called to the platform from where she bowed her acknowledgement to the crowd and afterwards shook hands with her friends in the auditorium. She was probably the happiest girl in Fort Wayne last night and her friends were nearly as happy as she was.

DEATH COMES.

The Queen of Denmark Passes From Life.

The End Came Peacefully While She Was Surrounded by Her Family—Royalty Plunged in Grief.

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 29.—The end of the queen of Denmark, which came at half past 5 this morning, was peaceful. At her bedside were the king of Denmark, the dowager empress of Russia, the king and queen of Greece, the princess of Wales, the duke and duchess of Cumberland, the crown prince and crown princess of Denmark and all the other members of the royal family.

HOW THE QUEEN DIED.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—A dispatch to the Times from Copenhagen has the following description of the death of the queen of Denmark:

The kings of Denmark and Greece and the princess of Wales, alternately, during many hours, held the hands of the dying queen, who for a few moments recovered consciousness but who would not speak. Her husband wept and the physicians requested him to retire to rest, but he replied: "I will stay at least while the queen is conscious."

Everywhere the flags are at half mast.

The queen did not die of any special illness, but of increasing decrepitude.

NOT A CORKSCREW.

It Was Another Kind of Punch McCoy Used on Corbett.

Two Pugilists Come Together in New York Hotel and McCoy Lays Corbett Out With a Kick.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—James J. Corbett and "Kid" McCoy have fought. The bout came off in the heart of New York in broad daylight and there was no police interference. Although it lasted but one round it proved to the spectators who happened to be at the Gilsey house yesterday afternoon that pugilists fight as well as talk if they so far forget themselves.

There were few spectators about the improvised ring in the rotunda of the hostelry at 29th street and Broadway, but they were mightily interested even if there weren't any kinetoscope picture machines or seconds for a picturesque background. The hotel men were annoyed because of the free-for-all and democratic manner in which the two monthly champions came to blows, and the spectators were disgusted when the friends of the principals pulled them apart after two or three blows and a kick.

Eye witnesses declared McCoy kicked Corbett and this the "Kid" denies. Anyway, a report was going the rounds last evening that Corbett had been taken to Considine's hotel after the trouble and a physician had ordered him to bed. The two pugilists met to discuss the Buffalo club's prospects for holding the proposed fight and lost their temper. This is the way one of the hotel attaches tells of the brief passage at arms:

"Corbett was standing at the cigar stand shortly after 1 o'clock and was surrounded by several friends when McCoy, also accompanied by several friends, came in through the Twenty-ninth street entrance. As soon as he saw Corbett he walked over to where he was, pushing his way through the knot of men around him.

"Both began to talk excitedly immediately. Without warning McCoy finally knocked Corbett's hat flying. Corbett, without a second's hesitation, then swung his left and landed on McCoy's right cheek. McCoy jumped back and Corbett started after him. When McCoy saw Corbett's move he kicked at him hard and caught him in the groin."

As the result of the fight Corbett will be confined to his bed for a week at least. McCoy made a hasty exit from the scene of battle.

ERNE DRAWS WITH LAVIGNE.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Kid Lavigne and Frank Erne fought a draw at the Greater New York Athletic club. Such was the referee's decision, but he announced that the men had an agreement to the effect that if both were on their feet at the end of the twentieth round the bout should be a draw. Erne had Lavigne's face in a bad fix, but had received little punishment himself. The crowd was dissatisfied with the result, as they wanted a decision. It was one of the best fights seen in New York this year, with Erne getting the best of it all through.

WILL BE DIFFICULT.

Task of the Peace Commission is Very Heavy.

Americans and Spaniards Are Widely Divergent.

Text of the Instructions of the Americans.

Whole of the Luzon to be Ceded to the United States—Church and State to be Separated.

PARIS, Sept. 29.—The United States peace commission held another session this morning, after which, accompanied by the United States ambassador, General Horace Porter, they drove to the foreign office, where the commissioners met and breakfasted with the Spanish commissioners. In addition to the commissioners and the ambassadors the minister of foreign affairs, M. Delcasse, had invited the three head officials of the French foreign office, the first secretaries of the embassies and General Hegron, secretary of the Elysee palace.

The French newspapers continue to comment upon the difficulties which the two commissions will have to face by reason of their divergent instructions, beyond which, it is said, they cannot go. Gil Blas says:

"The Spanish government has given its commissioners very precise instructions. They are to do their utmost to have it admitted that there can be no question of disputing the rights of Spanish sovereignty over Manila, the Island of Luzon and the rest of the archipelago outside of the naval stations which Spain will cede at the Marine islands.

"On the other side, the American commissioners before leaving President McKinley, received from him very precise instructions, from which the commissioners cannot depart.

TEXT OF INSTRUCTIONS.

"The following is the text of their instructions:

"'1. Spain cedes absolute sovereignty over the whole of the Island of Luzon.

"'2. The other islands of the archipelago will be replaced under the dominion of Spain on condition that a liberal government is accorded to the inhabitants.

"'3. Complete separation of church and state in the Philippines.

"'4. Spain cannot cede any other islands in the group to any foreign power without America's consent.

"'5. The United States shall enjoy for all time the same commercial privileges as the most favored nations, not excepting Spain herself.'"

The Gil Blas concludes with remarking:

"It is therefore to be feared that for unhappy Spain the negotiations which open the first of October will give no satisfaction."

[illegible] WILL CELEBRATE.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—A dispatch to the Herald from Manila says:

At Malolos tomorrow, Aguinaldo will formally inaugurate the republic of the Philippines by a great celebration. Invitations have been extended to the principal army officers and newspaper correspondents here. A thousand natives will attend. The "dictator" will review his army and will probably issue proclamations to the nations of the world setting forth the intentions of his government. The transport Arizona, having on board navy recruits and an immense lot of mail, arrived today. This is the first home mail for several months.

There has been much adverse comment over the lack of mail facilities and the army of occupation is rejoicing that letters have arrived at last.

FROM BAYARD'S PEN.

The Statesman Wrote a Letter to William P. Cooper.

Mr. Bayard Was Then United States Senator From Delaware—A Reminiscence of Politics in 1871.

The death of the Hon. Thomas F. Bayard has recalled to William P. Cooper a reminiscence of the political days of 1871, when the distinguished statesman delivered a speech in this city.

On October 1st of that year Mr. Bayard, then United States senator from Delaware, and Andrew J. Curtin, then governor of Pennsylvania, were heard in Fort Wayne on the political issues of the campaign. Mr. Cooper, at that time occupying the position of city editor of THE SENTINEL, attended the meeting and took a report of the proceedings. Mr. Bayard requested of Mr. Cooper a copy of the paper containing the report of his speech, which the newspaper man mailed to his address a few days later. Mr. Bayard, in a grateful and complimentary letter, acknowledged the receipt of the paper and it is this letter that Mr. Cooper has preserved so well. It is a souvenir that will be prized more highly than ever since the death of the distinguished man who wrote it.

Carnegie's Big Project.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 29.—Commenting on the reported projects of Mr. Carnegie to build an ordnance plant, a ship yard on the Monongahela, and a railroad from Braddock to Tidewater, the Iron Trade Review this week says: "The ordnance proposition is the single one that is assured of foundation and of that there is just enough to indicate that an ordnance plant is a possibility at some time."

HACKNEY WITHDRAWS.

Democratic Candidate for Supreme Judge is Out of It.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 29.—Leonard J. Hackney has withdrawn from the democratic state ticket as a candidate for judge of the supreme court from the second district. His letter of resignation will be acted on by the state board of election commissioners at its next meeting.

The vacancy on the ticket caused by the resignation will be filled by the democratic state committee. It has been pretty well understood that Judge Hackney has never been able to bring himself to an indorsement of the "sixteen to one" platform of his party.

DRIVEN BY FLAMES.

Forest Fire Raging West Side of Colorado Divide.

People Are Fleeing for Their Lives—Cattle Are Perishing and Wild Animals Are Stampeded.

IDAHO SPRINGS, Col., Sept. 29.—Forest fires burning on the west side of the divide are beyond control and people are said to be fleeing for their lives. How many, if any, have perished, cannot be known, as there is no way of getting direct information at this time.

A light breeze gives the mighty sea of fire a new impetus and onward it goes, burning everything before it, with no chance of saving live stock or property. Cattle are known to be perishing, and bear and deer and other wild animals are running to the east side of the divide.

The damage will be tremendous. The timber losses amount to more than money consideration.

These forests cover the head waters of mountain streams, where the snows are retained for many months. From such sources the streams have been kept carrying a volume of water sufficient to irrigate most of the lands of the state west of the divide. With the disappearance of the timber the flow of the streams will be lessened.

There seems to be a settled opinion among the ranchers that the forest fires were started by Ute Indians with malicious intent. They say the forcible ejection of the Indians and their return to the reservation more than a year ago, because of their slaughter of game, made them bitter against the whites. They are now playing even, the settlers think, and at the same time driving some of the game into Utah, where they can hunt without being molested by game wardens.

A FORT WAYNE MAN.

James Dignan Arrested on Suspicion of Being One of the Flora Bank Robbers.

One of the men arrested as a suspect in the Flora bank robbery was James Dignan, a brother of Mrs. George Jaap, of this city. Quite a sum of money was found on his person and he told a peculiar story. It is alleged that he was strung up and an effort was made to have him confess, but this story is denied. Bloodhounds put on the track of the criminals, however, refused to follow Dignan's tracks and the officer now assert that he is not one of the robbers. Dignan has been absent from Fort Wayne and his sister did not know were he was.

It will be remembered that several years ago Dignan went through a long trial in the circuit court to establish his identity, his sister having believed he was dead.

Elected Lord Mayor of London.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—Sir John V. Moore, an alderman of the city of London and senior partner of Moore Brothers, tea merchants, has been elected lord mayor of London, to succeed Horatio David Davies, the present incumbent of that office. He was born in 1826, has represented the ward of Candlewick since 1889 and was sheriff of the city of London in 1893-94.

Diphtheria prevails at Markle, Ind., and one of the children of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Troutman died yesterday from that disease. Mr. Troutman is the editor and proprietor of the Markle News. He is a nephew of Mrs. N. Conover, of Harrison street, and frequently visits this city.

The work of the different committees is now nearly over so far as preliminaries are concerned. The general committee will have another important meeting this evening, the needlework committee will meet tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock and the archeological committee will meet tomorrow evening.

Mrs. Page Blackburn, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Fairfield, of Shawnee avenue, has returned to her home at Decatur.

Helen, the two-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Linker, of 30 Marion street, died this afternoon, of exhaustion.

The case of Ellison vs. the Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance company, is on trial in the circuit court.

SWINDELED A HOTEL

That is the Charge Against Frank E. Moore.

Arrested in Winchester by Sheriff Melching.

Claims He Did Not Nor Intend to Beat the Landlord.

Circuit Court Jury Found Dell Pattee Not Guilty of Intoxication—Items of Interest.

Frank E. Moore and his wife were brought to Fort Wayne on an early morning train from Winchester by Sheriff Melching. Mr. Moore is charged with trying to beat a hotel bill.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore came to Fort Wayne early in September and registered at the Randall hotel, Mr. Moore claiming at the time to be a book agent.

On the evening of September 22 they left the Randall and the next day Landlord Stutesman received a letter from Moore explaining that he was suddenly called to Chicago and was unable to settle his board bill, but hoped to pay up in a short time. He gave his address as the "General Delivery, Chicago." He owed the hotel $22.77.

A few days' later it was learned that Moore did not go to Chicago, but instead had gone to Monroe, Ind. Sheriff Melching was notified and a warrant was issued for Moore's arrest.

The sheriff went to Monroe yesterday and learned that Mr. and Mrs. Moore, who had been visiting the wife's brother, near Monroe, had gone to Winchester.

He telegraphed to the officers at Winchester and when Sheriff Melching arrived at the latter city Mr. and Mrs. Moore were being held in the custody of the Randolph county sheriff.

The wife was not under arrest, but Sheriff Melching brought her to Fort Wayne and she is his guest at the jail residence.

Moore denies that he intended to beat his board bill, but says that he found it impossible to sell books here owing to the great interest taken in the street fair and was forced to leave without settling because he did not have the money. He left a trunk for security. Mr. and Mrs. Moore were married two years ago at Middleton, Ohio, and are much attached to each other. An effort is being made to settle the matter and it is believed Mr. Moore will not be prosecuted.

PATTEE NOT GUILTY.

The jury in the case against Dell Pattee, who was arrested by Officer Dickson for drunkenness, reached a verdict a few minutes after the case was given to them at 5 o'clock last evening. They were ordered to bring in a sealed verdict, but they reached an agreement in ten minutes, finding Pattee "Not guilty." Only one ballot was taken and every juryman voted for acquittal. The verdict was not a surprise to persons who heard the evidence, although the officers were positive in their statements that Pattee was intoxicated. The result may be a suit for damages.

MEISKER STILL IN JAIL.

The case of wife desertion against Harry J. Meisker has not been settled. Although the wife is willing, on account of their child, to have him released and Mr. Bowser will willingly give him back his position, the officers are inclined to prosecute and the man may have a hearing now at any time unless the prosecutor relents.

NOTES.

Justice France last evening bound Joseph Roy over to the circuit court on paternity proceedings commenced by Roxy Beamer. The bond was fixed at $100. Roy gave the bond and was released.

Superior court has adjourned until next Monday.

In the superior court the case of Phillips vs. Schell has been set for trial next Tuesday.

A JUVENILE FAIR.

How a Crowd of Youngsters Had a Show of Their Own.

Drove Five Cows From Pasture and Penned Them Up in the Harrison Street Stalls.

A dozen of small boys with a future full of promise found time hanging on their hands last night, so they drove five cows from the jail flats and penned them up in some of the cattle stalls erected on Harrison street for the street fair next week.

The owner of the cows was hunting all night long for his lost property and this morning he sought the city authorities to help him out.

Is was only after a long search had been made that the discovery of five cows in the Harrison street pens was reported.

Just which boy is responsible for getting up this live stock exhibit is not known, and he will probably remain in cog., as the owner of the cows is trying to have the juveniles taught a severe lesson.

THE battleship Oregon today starts on her second long voyage, going this time to Manila to join Admiral Dewey's already powerful fleet. The hero of Cavite will soon be in that kind of fighting trim that will command the most profound respect of all nations represented in the far east.

THE death of Thomas Francis Bayard removes from the democratic party one of its best and ablest members. Mr. Bayard's public career was so clean and dignified that he accorded to a remarkable degree the esteem and confidence of men of the opposite party. In the senate of the United States his services were long, honorable and conspicuous. For many years he was almost by common consent esteemed as the ablest democrat in the country. As Mr. Cleveland's secretary of state he gave his admirers some disappointments because his administration was not marked by brilliancy and dash. But he was safe and in more recent light his career as secretary is regarded with general satisfaction. Mr. Bayard had been in voluntary political retirement since the expiration of his term of service as ambassador to Great Britain, though there is little doubt that his party in the state of Delaware would gladly have accepted his leadership again.

STEAD'S COMMENTS.

Commenting on the arrival of the American peace commissioners in Paris, William T. Stead, the English newspaper man, says:

"The new world has invaded the old world. In Paris today, at the Hotel Continental, is the headquarters of the army of invasion. It is a pacific invasion, no doubt, but the invaders are bent, if not on conquest and annexation, at least upon appropriation and extension of their boarders. The struggle now going on between the French authorities and the exposition commissioners brings forcibly home to the European mind the great question of the future. It is a miniature reproduction of a conflict of the forces, which looms even more gigantic before the eyes of mankind.

"The war between Spain and the United States was a revelation to the average Frenchman. When Dewey destroyed the Spanish fleet at Manila the scales began to fall from his eyes, and when Cervera's fleet met with the same fate he realized that a new naval power had been born into the world, inheriting, as one put it, 'the good fortune that always attended the English on the seas.' Early in the war the reports that the American fleet had been destroyed and that Sampson had been killed threw the Parisian populace into a paroxysm of delight. In those days no one bore disguised his sympathies with Spain. But nowadays all agree to forget that, and they are already convinced that there were never such friends of the Americans as the French.

"There is no trace of any disposition in official quarters to make any difficulties in settling the terms of peace. The only demur made to the imperial expansion of the United States comes from experienced observers, like De Pressenze, of the Temps, who regret the new departure, not because it affects France, but because it endangers the American republic. The French are at present exhibiting to the world some deplorable results of dominant militarism, and they sigh when they see the new world gliding down the inclined plane which leads to Caesarism. They declare that the annexation of the Antilles and the Philippine islands will necessitate the creation of a large standing army, the enrollment of a corps of functionaries, a departure from all traditions of the republic and a total transformation of the letter and spirit of the constitution.

"I see there still appears to be some question as to whether the European powers ever actually proposed to intervene in behalf of Spain. The story was that they decided to do so, and were only stopped by the blunt intimation from Lord Salisbury that if they ever attempted such a thing the British fleet would be placed under the orders of President McKinley. I have the highest official authority, both British and French, for saying that there was never any proposal from M. Hanotaux (the French minister for foreign affairs at the time) for intervention. I regret having destroyed the legend, but magna est veritas, and, however delighted John Bull might have been to lend a friendly hand to Uncle Sam, he never had the chance to do so, and for this reason—the European powers, France most of all, had too much sense."

LABOR COMMISSION'S WORK.

The forthcoming report of the state bureau of statistics will contain a review of the work accomplished by the Indiana labor commission since it was organized, June 16, 1897. In introducing the statistical information relating to the work of the commission, the chief of the bureau says:

"The wisdom of the enactment of the law by the last legislature, in creating a labor commission, is readily seen by the statement made to this bureau by the commissioners, given on following pages. Thirty-four strikes and disturbances of labor were in their hands for adjustment. Of these, three strikes were prevented, one boycott declared off and twenty-two settled. In nineteen of them increased wages resulted, in the adjustment. Settlement failed in only six of them, though finally in two of the latter the recommendations of the commissioners resulted in an advance of wages. In the work of the commissioners, not only 7,500 workingmen were restored to employment, but secured earnings of many thousands of dollars to them, and in far better conditions to all classes in the communities where these disturbances occurred. The brief period of the operation of this law under its wise administration has resulted in great benefits to labor, the state and the people generally.

"It is also to be noted that it was the Indiana Labor Commission which inaugurated the movement and brought about the conferences of the commissioners of Illinois, Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania during the great coal strike of 1897, and which finally resulted in its settlement and decided betterment of the coal miners of all those states. This was the first attempt at co-operation of the various state labor commissions, and the result was greatly beneficial to the thousands of miners and all other classes in the states mentioned."

BUILDING INSPECTOR

Fort Wayne Will Have Such an Officer Some Day.

The Sooner the Better Thinks Chief Hilbrecht and Col. C. E. Graves—Big Cities Have Them.

A citizen was discussing with Chief Hilbrecht, of the fire department, the benefits that might accrue from the appointment of a building inspector in this city, and that official expressed himself as greatly in favor of the creation of such an official and stated his reasons why.

"All good sized cities have a building inspector," said Mr. Hilbrecht, "and Fort Wayne is reaching the size where one will be needed. Such an inspector will see to it that all of the new buildings going up will have good fire proof walls, and be built substantially to withstand the ravages of fire."

This is not the first time the subject has been brought up and it is hardly likely that it will be the last. The fact of the matter is that Fort Wayne is falling in line with the ideas that hold good in metropolitan cities. From this time on the business buildings ought to be large and probably will be; at least this will be so in the central part of the city. That all such buildings going up are well protected from fire is a matter worth considering, for if such a precaution is not taken there may probably be a terrible loss by conflagration some day.

Another gentleman to pass on the subject was Col. C. E. Graves, secretary of the Board of Underwriters. He is strongly in favor of the appointment of an inspector, and says that the insurance men really ought to demand it in the near future.

Charles Jocquel, of the Twenty-eighth Indiana battery, who was very seriously ill with malarial fever, is now able to sit up. The young soldier is the son of Louis Jocquel, the Calhoun street stationer.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Nick Young, president of the National league, says:

"At least seven clubs of the twelve will fall thousands of dollars short of their expenses on the year. I was surprised to hear that even Mr. Hanlon's great team, one of the best attractions in the league, will play to an actual loss on the year. Washington, St. Louis, Cleveland, Pittsburg, New York and Brooklyn will also be forced to delve into their pockets to the tune of many dollars in order to meet losses. Mr. Wagner has been especially unfortunate with the Washington club.

"The war, and that alone, is the cause of the poor attendance all over the major league circuit and throughout the minor leagues. We tried to fool ourselves early in the season with the delusion that the war would not affect our receipts to any great extent, but as the season advanced we were obliged to own up that it kept many a dollar from our turnstiles.

"I have numerous inquiries from the various club presidents and managers of our teams regarding the 154 game schedule, whether it should be carried again next season or whether we should return to the old 132-game assignment of championship dates. If the teams draw fairly well during the first two weeks in October the 154-game schedule will doubtless be continued for another year. If we find that the 154-game schedule does not pan out during the last two weeks of the season we will cut twenty-two games, though the championship season will begin as usual, in the middle of April.

"The four trip plan has certainly given the public one of the best pennant races we have ever enjoyed. These two extra trips cost money, but the public, you know, must be served, as they are the dictators."

A GAME FOR A PURSE.

The managers of the Shamrock and Crystal teams met last evening and perfected arrangements for the second game to be played between these teams for the amateur championship of the city. A purse will also be hung up on this game. A list of players on each team has been filed, and no changes will be made. Lincoln Bolinger, of Roanoke, will hold the indicator. The teams:

Shamrocks — Braiden, Robbins, Nolan, Heller, Smith, Kelley, Fitzpatrick, McDarby, Cherry, Reidy, Elsing, Lauer and Moran.

Crystals—Hays, l. f.; Weldon, r. f.; Philabaum, 3; Collars, m.; McCarty, 1; Quinn, p.; Nill, s. s.; Baker, 2; Hollinger or Walter Welch, c; Green, p.

The game will be played next Sunday afternoon at Lakeside. Robbins and Braiden will be in the points for the Shamrocks.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Louisville, 6; Chicago, 1.
Cleveland, 4; Cincinnati, 1.
Brooklyn, 5; Boston, 2.
Philadelphia, 8; New York, 7.

NOTES.

"Chick" Stahl yesterday made his third home run of the championship season.

Big Bill Phillips, of Indianapolis, was the winning pitcher of the Western league. He won twenty-nine games and lost ten, making his percentage of victories .744.

Stanley Robison telegraphs that the Clevelands will not play in Fort Wayne next Tuesday. An effort may be made later to have the Clevelands and another National league team play in Fort Wayne.

Hartzell is playing a fast right field for the Louisvilles while Dexter is laid up with an injury. And none of the Inter-State ball patrons believed that he was as good as Flood, Hartman, Beecher, Rickert and one or two others.

President Watkins, of Pittsburg, says that dallying with the flagon that flows is less injurious to the ball player than wooing Mistress Fortune by medium of poker, hearts, or any other game of chance. It is petty gambling that breeds riots in ball teams.

Cunningham pitched his thirteenth successive victory yesterday for the Louisvilles. Clark Griffith was in the box against him for Chicago, but really it did not seem as if the two men were in the same class, so far superior was the work of the old Fort Wayne twirler.

The season of 1898 promises to be a marker in base ball history. It required the last games of the schedule to decide the Inter-State and Western league races, and now Baltimore and Boston threaten to indulge in the same sort of bruising finish. The Birds have three games to play in Boston, October 3, 4 and 5, and ten days later the Beaneaters have three in Baltimore to close the season. On those six games may hang the pennant.

The Kansas City Journal says: "'Talk about people being superstitious,' said Dale Gear the other day, 'you ought to have seen the large and varied assortment of mascots which people sent me before that last game. I received four rabbits' feet, seven four-leaved clovers and a quarter which looked as if a railroad train had run over it. Some of those things came from women, who accompanied them with notes wishing me all kinds of good luck. I have never heard that a mashed coin would bring good fortune, but I wore it with all the other presents when I pitched that last game.'"

Charley Babb is circulating among his friends again after being laid up at St. Joe hospital for a week. Charley says says he would like to have a try in the outfield next season. The Inter-State has developed some high class twirlers and outfielders for the bigger leagues, but not one infielder has proven a success. Babb believes this is accounted for in the fact that Inter-State grounds have skin diamonds and when an infielder breaks into the National he is unable to handle the speedy hits over the grass infields. The Fort Wayne management will probably have a grass diamond next season provided the games are played at the foot of Calhoun street.

SPEEDY KLATAWAH.

He Traveled a Wonderful Mile For a Three-Year-Old.

Lowers the Record of Pacers for That Age to 2:05 1-4—Miss Logan Won the Race—John Nolan Also a Winner.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 29.—A new world's record for three-year-old pacers was one of the results of the racing at the Louisville Driving Fair association. Klatawah, driven by Keating, in the first heat of the Seelbach stakes, covered the mile in 2:05¼, lowering his own record of 2:06¼, made at Peoria in July. The previous record was 2:07¾ by Directly. In spite of this remarkable performance, he lost the race to Miss Logan, who took the three subsequent heats of the $5,000 race.

The Douglas stakes was finished, only one heat remaining to be run. John Nolan, the heavily backed favorite, took the heat in a brilliant finish from Mattie Patterson, lowering his record to 2:06.

In the other unfinished race, the 2:15 trot, Tudor Chimes, driven by Geers, won in straight heats from Espy Boy, the favorite. Woodford C., yesterday's favorite, was drawn on account of sickness. More than $60,000 went into the pools last night on the Seelbach stake. The summaries:

MR. BAYARD IS DEAD.

Democratic Statesman Yields to the Conqueror.

He Came of Distinguished Family and His Public Services Were Valuable and Conspicuous.

DEDHAM, Mass., Sept. 29.—Thos. F. Bayard died at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at Karlstein, the summer residence of his daughter, Mrs. Samuel D. Warren, after an illness of six weeks. His death was without pain. His wife, his two daughters—Mrs. Warren and Miss Florence Bayard—and his son, Thomas F. Bayard, jr., saw him draw his last breath, and his third daughter, the Countess Lauenhaupt, was on her way to Dedham. The remains will be conveyed to Delaware and the funeral services will be held Saturday in the old Swedish church at Wilmington.

Today the body will be sent to Delaware, being due to arrive at Wilmington late Friday afternoon.

BAYARD'S REMARKABLE ANCESTRY.

Thomas Francis Bayard was born in Wilmington, Del., October 29, 1828. He came of a family which for four successive generations has represented the state of Delaware in the United States senate. The first of his ancestors to settle in that state was Peter, a son of Petrus Bayard, probably a collateral descendant of the celebrated Chevalier Bayard, and Annel Stuyvesant, Miss Stuyvesant being a sister of old Peter Stuyvesant, the last of the Dutch governors of the Netherlands. The younger Peter joined the Labadists, a religious sect that emigrated to New Amsterdam from Holland, after which, in 1675, he purchased from one of the native chiefs, for a paltry consideration, Bombay Hook, Massell and Indian Sachem, a magnificent tract. Among the most noted of the New York branch of the family was Nicholas Bayard, a New York statesman, who was so active in the execution of Leisler that later he was put on trial for his complicity in the proceedings, although he succeeded in securing his acquittal.

FAMILY'S PUBLIC SERVICES.

Richard Bassett, the great grandfather of the deceased, was a member of the convention that framed the constitution of the United States. He was also a presidential elector in 1797, casting his vote for the second president of the republic. From 1789 to 1793 he sat in the United States senate, and from 1798 to 1801 was governor of the state. His only daughter married James A. Bayard the first, who served four years in the house of representatives, was appointed minister to France, and then sat in the United States senate from 1804 until he was appointed by the president one of the commissioners who negotiated the treaty of Ghent, terminating the war of 1812. On his way home from Ghent he was notified of his selection as minister to Russia, a post which he declined in consequence of failing health. His son, James A. Bayard the second, having been defeated for the election to congress, the democratic party being in the minority in his district, he was elected in 1851 to the United States senate. He was re-elected, resigned, was reappointed by the governor and was re-elected by the legislature at the end of his partial term. He held also numerous prominent position in party councils and constitutional conventions.

BEGINNING OF HIS CAREER.

Thomas F. Bayard, son of James A. Bayard the second, received his education at Dr. F. L. Hawkes' Flushing school on Long Island, N. Y. His father intended that he should be a merchant, and, after passing a short time in a counting house in New York city, he entered the great West India house of Morris Wain & Co. in Philadelphia.

The young man's love of the law, however, would not down, and his father, yielding, took him into his Wilmington office, from which he passed to practice at the bar in 1851. Only two years later he was appointed United States district attorney for Delaware, after holding which office a year he resigned it. For two years, 1855 and 1856, he practiced law in Philadelphia, returning to Wilmington and practicing law there until his election in 1868 to succeed his father in the United States senate.

ON THE ELECTORAL COMMISSION.

Mr. Bayard received fifteen votes for president in the democratic national convention of 1872. In the convention of 1876, after receiving thirty-one votes, he furnished the two necessary to nominate Samuel J. Tilden. When, after the presidential contest, the returning board dispute threatened the peace of the nation, Senator Bayard, as one of the senate leaders, was made a member of the conference committee which prepared the bill creating the electoral commission. He served on the commission and insisted on keeping faith with the republicans in spite of the fact that he honestly believed that Tilden, and not Hayes, had been elected to the presidency.

In 1880 and again in 1884 Mr. Bayard's name was voted on in presidential nominating conventions of the democratic party.

WORK IN RECENT YEARS.

In selecting his cabinet in 1885 Mr. Cleveland chose Mr. Bayard as his secretary of state. The Bering sea fisheries controversy was a heritage of the office. Mr. Bayard's first work along the lines of this dispute was to negotiate a modus vivendi for the season already entered upon, with the understanding that the matter would be referred to congress in December, with recommendations for the authorization of a joint arbitration commission. In 1887 the joint commission met, and in February of the following year a fisheries treaty was negotiated, which, however, the senate rejected by a party vote. In the year following a twenty year exclusion treaty was negotiated with China. The convention being rejected by the latter power, the Chinese exclusion law was the retaliatory result. The sensational dismissal of Lord Sackville-West and Mr. Bayard's spirited correspondence with Lord Salisbury and other premiers of Europe and South America are well-remembered incidents of his administration of the state department.

Soon after his retirement from the state department Mr. Bayard, who had lost his first wife, was married to Mary Willing Clymer, daughter of the late Dr. Clymer, of the navy.

AMBASSADOR TO BRITAIN.

Immediately after Mr. Cleveland's second election Mr. Bayard visited him at Lakewood, and it was reported that the state portfolio was again offered him. The facts in the case never have been developed. The president, however, slated Mr. Bayard for the mission to Great Britain, delaying the appointment until the British foreign office, by accrediting Sir Julian Pauncefote as ambassador should make it possible to bestow like dignity on the American representative. Such action having been taken Mr. Bayard was nominated to the post, and became the first United States ambassador at the court of St. James. During the period of his service there the American embassy enjoyed a distinctly new popularity with English society and the diplomatic corps. Mr. Bayard's public utterances and his engaging personality promoting the best of feeling in both social and government circles.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement, that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at Dreier & Bro.'s drug store. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters;' and, to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cts per bot. at Dreier & Bro. drug store.

A Cure for Sleeplessness.

I commenced using your Ramon's Liver Pills & Tonic Pellets the first of December, 1895, for Heart and Liver trouble. I will never forget the good they have done me. I could not sleep, was short of breath and, in fact, could not work any. I have used a few boxes and today I feel as well as I ever did in my life.—O. M. Britton, Holbrook, W. HAPPY MOTHERS AND HEALTHY CHILDREN.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Goes Straight to the Cause of All Female Troubles and Assures a Healthy Maternity.

Mrs. M. Snoke, 104 Hudson Ave., Rochester, N. Y., writes to Mrs. Pinkham as follows:

"When I applied to you for advice I had been suffering some years from debility, nervousness, etc. I had had several miscarriages and was pregnant when I wrote to you.

"I am grateful to say that after taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was considerably better, and after using three more it brought me where I am to-day. I am well, and the mother of a three-months' old baby.

"Doctors had failed to help me. I have no one to thank but Mrs. Pinkham and her wonderful remedy."

Mrs. Ella Duncan, Reeder's Mills, Iowa, writes:

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I thank you for what your medicine and advice have done for me.

"I have a baby two months old. When he was born I was sick only fifteen minutes, whereas with my other children I was sick for two or three days, and also suffered with my left leg, and could get nothing to relieve the pain but morphine. My leg did not trouble me at all this time. I had no after pains and was not as weak as I had been before.

"I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly. May God bless you in your noble work."

Mrs. J. W. Pruitt, Medford, Oregon, says:

"My health, also the baby's, we owe to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. John W. Long, Wyoming, Iowa, writes:

"I had shooting pains all over my body, was very weak and nervous. I could not straighten up. I wished to become a mother but was afraid I never could. Seventeen months ago I got some of your Vegetable Compound, and after taking half a bottle was much relieved. I took four bottles and was cured. Now I have a big baby boy which I feel I owe to your Compound. Many thanks for your kind advice."

PRESIDENT'S TRIP.

Getting Ready to Journey to Omaha.

Many Cities Send Him Invitations to Visit Them, But He is Obliged to Decline Them All.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Many cities not heretofore considered wish to be included in the itinerary of the president's trip west in connection with the Omaha exposition. With the outlining of the plans for the trip, invitations of a most urgent character, both by telegram and by letter, have been dispatched to the president in the interest of those anxious to entertain the president. Mr. McKinley, however, has planned to spend only a fortnight away from Washington, and this will necessitate a reluctant declination of numerous invitations. Assistant Secretary of War Meiklejohn had a long interview with the president today, going over the arrangements for the trip.

Residents of Fourth Street Petition for Asphalt.

Only Two More Days to Pay the Vehicle Tax, Then Arrests Will Commence—Notes.

The residents of the northside are not to be outdone by the southsiders in building up a pretty city. This morning M. J. Maroney and twenty other residents of Fourth street filed with the board of works a petition asking that the street be paved with sheet asphalt from Sherman street to Calhoun street. This means seven squares more of asphalt on the northside. Before winter comes Cass and High street will have been paved with sheet asphalt, and with the brick pavement on Wells street, asphalt on Fourth and intimations of more petitions to follow, the northside will some day be a veritable home of fine streets. The contract for the pavement on Fourth street cannot possibly be let this season, and besides petitions have been filed for pavements on Breckenridge, Holman and other streets, which will have to be first considered.

GET YOUR TAG.

Only two more days in which to pay the vehicle tax. After Friday the law requires that every person without a tag on his vehicle must be arrested and Superintendent Gorsline received orders to see that all riders and drivers have tags for their vehicles. It is much safer and cheaper to pay the taxes before there is a chance to attach a penalty and Comptroller Berghoff says that the ordinance will certainly be enforced.

NOTES.

The board of works will meet in regular session tonight.

The city hall will be handsomely decorated, but if the coronation stand is erected it will be built at the individual expense of the councilmen and city officials.

John Dolman is improving his Fairfield avenue home, a fine porch being included in the betterments.

BOILER EXPLODES.

Killing Engineer Johnson and Injuring Fireman Regan.

Train Was Running at a Twenty-five Mile Rate When the Accident Occurred—Local and Personal.

A freight locomotive on the Wabash blew up at 8 o'clock last night while the train was running twenty-five miles an hour one mile east of the little town of Wea and four miles west of Lafayette. Portions of the engine were carried nearly 200 yards and Engineer Oscar Johnson, of Lafayette, was buried under the wreck, while Fireman Jerry Regan was hurled a distance from the wreck. The engineer died soon after he was rescued and the fireman cannot recover. The train was composed of three cars and a caboose, all of which were piled in a mass along the track. The conductor and brakeman in the rear car escaped with slight bruises. The engine was almost totally demolished, fragments being found 500 feet from the scene of the explosion. Fireman Regan was thrown some distance from the wreck, but Engineer Johnson was buried under the debris and extricated only after several hours of labor. The suffering of each was pitiable. The engineer begged the rescuers to end his misery by killing him. A large crowd gathered and assisted in digging out the dying man. The track was torn up for 300 feet and the rails twisted into all shapes. It was necessary to lay a new track around the wreck. The wrecking train left Lafayette at 9 o'clock, returning at 12 o'clock with the two injured men. Johnson died shortly before the train reached that city. Regan cannot recover. No cause is assigned for the explosion.

Oscar Johnson was married, but had no children. He was quite well known in Wabash railway circles in this city. He came here in the spring of 1894 and on July 4 of that year took a position as fireman on the road. Up to the time of the change in the time card which resulted in taking off the Lafayette accommodation, he was with Engineer J. G. Storze on that run. Then he went to Peru, where he was given another run, and on September 1 was promoted to engineer and removed to Lafayette.

POLICEMEN'S TRAINING SCHOOL.

In addition to being one of the best equipped places in the country, the Bass blacksmith shop is also gaining quite a reputation as a training school for aspirants for police honors. That establishment has already furnished five men for that service and has plenty of others from which to select more patrolmen when the city needs them. Those now in service who worked in the Bass blacksmith shop prior to going on the force are Charles Spillner, Abraham Googline, Nicholas Peigon, William Rohror and A. O. Phipps.

The Nickel Plate will run a special train from Bellevue, Ohio, and Wanatah, Ind., to this city during the carnival at one fare for the round trip. The trains will arrive at 11 a. m. and returning will leave at 11 p. m.

MR. LEWIS RESIGNS.

A. W. Lewis, who has served as private secretary to R. T. McDonald since the resignation of Carroll Gould, about a year ago, has been compelled to retire from that office by poor health. He has already returned to his home in New York. Mr. Lewis made a number of friends in Fort Wayne and they all regret his departure.

October 1 the Chicago and Alton road will cease using car gates, which went into general use on that line January 1, 1893. The car gate system did everything expected of it and was eminently satisfactory to the officials, but the customers of the road object to it and it has been doomed.

William Lohrman, of Kendallville, was attending to business and calling upon old friends in the city yesterday. He is now fairly settled on the farm and says he likes his situation better than his former one, a locomotive engineer. For seventeen years Mr. Lohrman was employed on the Pittsburg road.

The Missouri Pacific has decided to meet the cut rate on wheat and corn made by the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe. The new order is effective October 1, when the Missouri Pacific will put in a rate of five cents less on wheat and two cents on corn than the present tariff rate for points on the line in Kansas and Nebraska. It is expected that other roads will follow suit.

A change effecting three men went into effect at the Nickel Plate round house today. He says the hard times have kept companies from making contemplated extensions, but conditions have changed and the betterments will now be made.

The Huntington News-Democrat: "Jack Royle, the popular New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio brakeman, of Galion, on one of the crews which runs over the Erie, went to Fort Wayne Monday. Jack had some strange tales to tell of his sight seeing. 'Why,' he said, 'I saw a mound up there as high as the Baptist church steeple in Huntington, with steps and an elevator going clear to the top. And when I got up there I saw the prettiest lake, right on top of that mound.'"

JOINT INSTITUTE.

Agriculturists of Two Townships Meet to Swap Ideas.

St. Joe and Washington Townships Form a Permanent Organization—The Prizes.

The farmers of St. Joe and Washington townships held a joint institute at the state farm yesterday and formed a permanent organization. The meeting was opened by the Hon. J. M. Robinson, and other addresses were made to fill in the time up to the dinner hour.

In the afternoon Dr. G. B. Stemen delivered an address, and was followed by Superintendent Johnson, W. F. DeVilbiss and others. The following resolutions were adopted:

"Resolved, That we, the citizens St. Joe and Washington townships here assembled, proceed to make this a permanent organization by the election of the proper officers, and that the present meeting be considered the first annual meeting of said Fair and Institute association.

"Resolved, That the thanks of those present be and are hereby tendered to Messrs. Johnson and Reichelderfer for the many courtesies shown in providing this beautiful place of meeting and for the music furnished by the state band.

"Resolved, That the thanks of the meeting be tendered to Messrs. Melching, Johnson, Ferguson, Robinson, Stemen and others who so generously contributed to the premium fund.

"Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the several city papers for publication."

The judges, Messrs. Koll, Blystone and Young, awarded premiums as follows:

Wheat—John Gillie, first prize; S. H. Davis, second.

Oats—John Gillie, first prize.

Corn—E. Drake, first prize; George Thumm, second; S. H. Davis, third.

Potatoes—George Thumm, first and second prizes; J. W. Young, third.

Best display of grain and produce—George Thumm.

W. H. DeVilbiss proved to be the prize fruit grower, taking first, second and third prizes for apples and the three prizes for peaches, and the prize for the best general display of fruits. A permanent organization was effected by the farmers of the two townships and the following officers elected:

President—George Thumm.
Secretary—James Notestine.
Treasurer—J. E. Reichelderfer.

DANGEROUS SURGERY.

Death Follows the Surgeon's Knife.

Not the Surgeon's Fault, of Course, He Can't Help It—You Can.

Pyramid Pile Cure Cures Piles Quickly, Painlessly, Without Danger.

People go along for years suffering with piles. Then try this, and that and the other thing; from carrying a buckeye to getting treatment from a physician. They obtain temporary relief, maybe, but they are never quite cured. A little strain in lifting, excessive fatigue, a little constipation or a little diarrhoea and the piles come back.

They don't seem to amount to much, but they banish sleep and appetite. No position is comfortable. There is intense local pain and that dreadful feeling of weight in the perineum.

Maybe in the early stages some of the many salves on sale will afford temporary relief. If the case is of long standing there is only one speedy and sure remedy. It is Pyramid Pile Cure. Even in the light cases it is the safest thing to use. Other applications may cure and may not. Pyramid Cure is always certain, always reliable and always brings comfort at once. Its prompt use saves months of severe suffering. In extreme cases it will save surgical operations and their attendant dangers and discomforts.

It is better than the knife. Will cure easier, quicker and safer. Thousands have used it. Thousands have been cured by it.

The cost is trifling compared with what it does. The price is 50 cents. Most anybody would gladly pay ten dollars to be rid of piles.

Druggists sell Pyramid Pile Cure. If yours hasn't he will get it from the Pyramid Pile Drug Co., of Marshall, Mich., (sole manufacturers.)

What nobler, better ambition can a young couple have than to live loving, helpful lives, and then, in a green old age, look back over a life that has been mutually self-sacrificing, useful and successful? The one great stumbling-block that stands between most married couples and this ideal married career is ill-health. If both husband and wife would take proper care of their health, there would be more hale, hearty and happy old people in the world. If, when a man suffers from the little ills of life, he will resort to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the chances are that he will avoid the big and fatal illnesses. This great medicine gives a man a healthy hunger, facilitates the flow of digestive juices, invigorates the liver, purifies and enriches the blood and builds firm, muscular, healthy flesh tissue.

It is an old saying that women are hard to kill. There is some truth in this, as far as the majority of illnesses are concerned. There is one class of disorders, however, that quickly undermine any woman's general health. No woman can retain her strength who suffers from weakness and disease of the delicate and important organs that make wifehood and motherhood possible. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is an unfailing cure for all disorders of this description. It acts directly on the sensitive organs concerned, in a natural, soothing way. It makes them strong, healthy and vigorous. It prepares them to bear the burdens of maternity. It is the greatest of nerve tonics. The woman who uses it will bear healthy, happy children, and live to a ripe old age.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. By all medicine dealers.

Dignified Dress Goods

In the plain, genteel weaves.

These are the fabrics much sought after this season, and from which tailors and dressmakers love to make smart costumes; for here are the coverts and cheviots and the camel's hair weaves that are as soft as a kitten's back; the Drap d'Ete, lustrous and serviceable; the whipcords, the new poplins and broadcloths; also a host of two-tone fabrics, diagonals and the very swell Bayadere effects.

Plain in weave, but rich in effect---a gathering that satisfies by its completeness.

Trusses!

There should be no guess work in the fitting of trusses. A truss will never do what it should do, unless the fit is absolutely perfect. and the fitting of them

We fit Trusses. We have fitted them for years. Our experience is backed by an assortment that includes every new idea and common sense feature in truss making.

DON'T RISK

Many sacrifice comfort and safety by wearing ill-fitting trusses. Others who could be cured by a properly fitting one, are risking life by wearing none.

LET US FIT YOU

The price will be just as comfortable as the Truss.

PLEASANT ⁂ REFLECTIONS.

There are pleasant reflections in our big triplicate mirror when a customer who is trying our kind of made to measure clothing for the first time, discovers that his new suit fits at the first trying on. That makes him smile--and when it dawns upon him fully that it's a little better suit than his last one from so and so's, and cost him $5 or so less, then that smile is limited by the size of his face. Then we get orders from his friends.
